Granite City will seek financial aid under a new federal highway assistance program to build an overpass spanning the railroad tracks between the downtown district and FA Route 151 (The Great River Road).

In addition, the city will apply for funds in the same program to finance a series of street improvements that qualify under the new Federal Aid to Urban System (HAUS) initiated by the federal government to replace the TOPICS program which is to be phased out June 30.

A locations study and preliminary engineering work would be necessary to select the most appropriate location for the overpass, it was said. Nierdinghaus Avenue and 20th Street have been suggested, but some engineers said it is possible Nineteenth Street may be the most feasible site.

Plans to initiate the overpass project as a top priority improvement were developed during a meeting here Tuesday between Mayor Paul Schulz, State Rep. Horace Calvo of Granite City, Robert Kronst, district engineer of the Department of Transportation, and John Kusior, district DOT engineer of local roads and streets.

Construction of an overpass to eliminate train blockages to and from the West Granite area long has been considered one of the city's most needed improvements, particularly with extension of Route 151 from Granite City to Venice expected within the next two years.

Kronst and Kusior explained that the new HAUS program will provide funds for distribution to communities of specified Urban Areas for a program of street and highway improvements financed by federal money on a basis of 70 per cent of cost paid by the government and 30 per cent paid by the community.

The two highway department engineers said that the new HAUS program will work similar to the TOPICS program except that it will be more liberalized in its requirements and permit a broader expanse of improvements.

Venice

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer
Relocation of Broadway in Venice—a job ten years in the planning and beset by financing problems, red tape and other delays—got under way yesterday.

The long-awaited improvement which will eliminate long traffic delays at the Broadway railroad crossing and afford quick access to McKinley Bridge and approaches to the new FA Route 151 when that roadway is extended through Venice, was initiated at a formal groundbreaking ceremony at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Nearly 100 persons attended the ceremony at a point near the Broadway underpass, which has been completed for nearly three years, as Venice city officials and representatives of adjoining communities turned the traditional first shovels of dirt to mark the beginning of work.

Acting Mayor Lloyd Patterson of Venice told the group: "The purpose of this improvement is to eliminate the many tieups, delays and hazards to traffic caused by train movements across Broadway. I don't need to go into great detail about these delays. You are all very much aware of them."

In brief remarks, Patterson praised the efforts of the late Mayor John E. Lee who spearheaded the movement to build the underpass and the new Broadway route and guided a city fund investment program which made financing possible.

Mrs. Margaret Lee, wife of the late mayor, was among participants in the ceremony.

Tracing the development of the project over the years, Patterson remarked that "at this point, the important role played and the cooperation given by the Department of Transportation of the state of Illinois must be acknowledged. We, the people of Venice, are grateful to the state, to the railroad and to the many who have helped make this project possible."

He told the Press-Record he favors sponsorship of public events and gatherings as a will result from a street relocation project launched at groundbreaking ceremonies Wednesday. Angling westward from the present route, new Broadway will lead to an underpass, ending traffic delays due to trains like that visible in the background.

Campaign focuses on job and ethics issues

Edgar A. "Pat" Patrick, one of three candidates for the District 26 position on the Madison County Board, today called for formation of an Ethics Committee by the board.

"It is my firm belief that an Ethics Committee should be established by the County Board. The board should police itself and prevent abuses of any nature," Patrick related.

"The Ethics Committee should ensure those members who do abuse the system, and it should have methods of controlling such abuses before they can become firmly established," he related.

Patrick added, "There comes a time in every campaign for public office when the candidates should stand up and be counted. There comes a time when every candidate has the duty and responsibility to make a sincere effort to place before the voting public his own ideas, goals and objectives so the voter may have the opportunity to evaluate his positions."

"There comes a time for the candidate to stand on his own two feet. That is what I now propose to do."

During the campaign I have attempted to place before the public the issues that are most important to them—taxes, per diem, Carroll, etc.—and to make my position known. I have attempted to provide the public with as many facts as I possibly can."

"It is time to stand up and be counted. I have presented issues to the public for evaluation. I now present myself for evaluation."

"From this point on I will not discuss my opponents. No charges will be leveled against them, nor will I answer any charges they may make against me through the news media."

"As a candidate for Madison County Board member, I do not believe it is appropriate for any candidate to make promises that he knows will be impossible to accomplish."

"There are 29 members on the County Board. Each representative is but one member; he has but one vote. There is no conceivable way that any one individual can make specific promises with assurance they will be accomplished."

"Major projects—drainage, sewers, parks, roads—require the majority vote of the 29-member board. I wish I could make such promises with the expectation they would be achieved."

"Your representative can do nothing by himself. He must be accompanied."

Priorities set as Higher Education Board confers

The Illinois Board of Higher Education on Tuesday approved a priority listing for new capital projects, including $1,185,000 for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for the 1974-75 fiscal year beginning July 1.

Meeting on the SUE campus for the first time, the board assigned priorities for five projects for SUE which were included in a statewide list of 106. Total cost of all projects on the priority list is estimated at $85,674,991.

Gov. Dan Walker has indicated $45 million will be available for capital expenditures for higher education. The five SUE projects were all ranked high enough to be within the governor's estimate of available funds.

The BHE gave a number three priority to installation of additional equipment in the heating and refrigeration plant at SUE. The equipment will be needed when two new classroom buildings now under construction are completed. The equipment and installation are expected to cost $1.5 million.

A total of $1.4 million was ranked as priority number 22 for equipment for the two new SUE classroom buildings.

The BHE listed $123,000 in remodeling for the Broadview Hotel, used by SUE to house its East St. Louis Center, as priority number 42. The money will be used to renovate two additional floors of the hotel to create more classroom and office space for the East St. Louis Center.

Remodeling for the SUE School of Dental Medicine at Alton was assigned priority number 47, with a cost of $100,000.

The BHE also granted priority number 30 for $60,000 for remodeling of existing buildings at SUE to return them to their original purposes.

During a severe shortage of classroom and laboratory space, some temporary changes have been made in buildings on the local campus to accommodate overloads.

The Illinois Board of Higher Education also approved plans for up to $150,000 in capital improvements for the recreation area at Tower Lake on the SUE campus.

The SIU Board of Trustees had approved the project Dec. 1.

7-county economic development district

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer
Creation of an "economic development district" to provide planning and management for programs in a seven-county area, including Madison County, was approved by the Madison County Board Wednesday.

All seven counties must approve the district before it can become a reality.

The Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission (SIMAPC) will serve as the heart of the district, coordinating programs and providing technical assistance for the district and for each governmental body in the district.

A SIMAPC spokesman said this week the district would provide more grant money in this area by providing better communications with the federal Economic Development Administration.

If the district plan is ratified, SIMAPC would create a local Economic Development Staff. The spokesman said specific programs which could be aided include public works, development of industrial parks and other facilities, and assisting communities in technical planning.

Countries to be linked by the proposal are Madison, St. Clair, Clinton, Bond, Monroe, Randolph and Washington.

The federal Economic Development Administration is mandating that all states begin the formation of districts.

County board members were told there will be no charge to the county in this fiscal year while the program is being planned.

Beginning in the next fiscal year, the county's share has been estimated at about $350,000 per year. The county could vote to withdraw from the district at any time, it was noted.

Approval of the plan was given by the board on the recommendation of the board's legislative committee.

The legislative committee also recommended that the board elect a vice chairman at its annual reorganization meeting. The vice-chairman, who would receive no salary, would serve as chairman pro tem if the chairman should be absent or unable to serve for a short period of time.

Charles Bode of Edwardsville, representative on the board of District 18, supported the idea and commented, "All cities have it and most counties too." The motion passed unanimously.

College hearing in May

A hearing will be held in Granite City in May to explore the possibility of disbanding one of the Granite City school district being annexed to Belleville Area College effective June 30.

The hearing was requested in a petition signed by 129 persons who gave assurances that the Community Unit School District Nine, the Press-Record was told today at Springfield.

Except for the petition, the annexation would be virtually an accomplished fact, since it has the approval of the school district, BAC and the Illinois Community College Board.

Solid backing was voiced for BAC over existing college systems at a Quad-City public hearing attended by 100 persons.

The petition cites no alternative plan but does set into motion the hearing procedure, during which proponents and opponents will have an opportunity to testify.

About 80 such hearings are being scheduled throughout the state for April and May, due to receipt by the ICCB of petitions containing 50 or more signatures from each of the 80 areas.

"Streaking" comes as no surprise to ESP (extra-sensory perception) authority and predictor of trends—Gordon Hoener of St. Louis.

As far back as February 1973, Hoener predicted that, in 1974, there would be a growing prevalence of nudity in public places and that by mid-year it would become "quite common."

He voiced a more general prediction of the trend in an interview in the Press-

Record in February 1972.

A year ago, his prediction was met with chuckles and was regarded as a gag. It's still a laughing matter, he says, but the gag has become a reality.

How does he see the future for "streaking?"

Subjecting itself of running nude, will die out shortly," Hoener told the Press-Record.

"However, it may be the beginning of a general social trend toward complete or semi-nudity on a widespread basis, with numerous groups trying to legalize nudity."

"Slogans such as 'Naked Isn't Nasty'; 'Make Friends—Take Off Your Clothes'; and 'Bodies Are Beautiful' will soon be appearing on bumper stickers, buttons, etc."

How does he make predictions on this and other subjects?

The former local bank official replies, "Nothing supernatural. Just a little intuition combined with awareness of social behavior."

His personal feeling on the matter of streaking is that "it can't last; people will be seeing too much of each other."

Free blood pressure, diabetes test program

A free blood pressure and diabetes testing program will be held from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. Friday in the main lobby of the Granite City Trust and Savings bank, 1909 Edison Ave.

The testing will be sponsored by the Lewis and Clark Association of the Life Underwriters and the Madison County Chapter of the Illinois Heart Association; with the approval of the Madison County Medical Association.

According to Bill Terrell, chairman of the local committee for underwriters, diabetic test strips will be passed out along with information from the Heart Society.

Mary Robinson and Kathy Robertson, both registered nurses, will make the blood pressure tests.

Dale Campbell and Dave Scaturro, both members of the underwriters, also will be present.

The slogan adopted for the tests is "To perform a death-defying act have your blood pressure checked."

Mrs. Hines dies at 74

Funeral services for Mrs. Serphonia E. Smith Hines, 74, of 800 W. Madison Ave., Madison, will be held at 8 p.m. today at the Mount Nebo Baptist Church, Madison.

Mrs. Hines died Saturday at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Irene Collins of Madison.

County 4-H fun contest

Four-Hers and leaders used their imagination to present musical, dramatic, dance and miscellaneous acts at a 4-H Share-the-Fun contest. The plays were performed during the weekend at the Weinheimer building in Highland.

Twenty-three 4-H clubs presented skits. Twelve of the clubs received A's and eleven received participation ribbons. A sketch presented by the Teens and Teens Club of Edwardsville was selected to represent Madison County at the Illinois State Fair. It was entitled "Once Upon a Clover."

A participation award went to the Moonspinners of Granite City.

Funeral services were held Wednesday. Details are given in the obituary column.

SIUE to sell recyclable paper

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has contracted with Lanterman Paper Stock Co. of East St. Louis to buy the university's recyclable paper.

According to Richard Parker, associate professor of biological sciences at SIUE and director of the paper recycling project, the University will collect an estimated 150 tons of recyclable paper annually. The University will save more than $11,000 a year from lower refuse collection costs and from sale of the recyclable paper, Parker said.

Almost all paper used in offices at SIUE is recyclable including letterhead, note paper, Xerox paper, ditto paper, newspaper and manila envelopes which cannot be salvaged includes carbon paper, envelopes with cellophane windows and paper containing large amounts of adhesive.

A semi-trailer for storing recyclable paper is located behind Lovejoy Library.

Nameeki Town Hall bids top estimate

Six bids for expansion and improvement of the Nameeki Town Hall were opened by the town board of auditors Monday night and were referred to the architect for study and a recommendation.

The board previously estimated that improvements would cost about $30,000 to provide a courtroom, meeting room, and more office space in the building. The Madison County Circuit Court would use the new courtroom.

The lowest bid received was $55,282 from R. W. Bookler Co., Inc., Hamel, Edmore Construction Co., Highway 111, Granite City, was second lowest bidder at $58,388.

Other bids submitted were from: Carl Mick, general contractor, Edwardsville, $60,895; Henry Ross Construction Co., Nameeki Road, $63,634; Douglas Construction Co., 2158 Cleveland Blvd., $70,000; Gaugen Lumber Co., Collinsville, $75,720; and Stan Rutkowski Construction Co., 2321 Arnold Drive, $89,940.

The board replied to allegations by Edgar Patrick, candidate for the District 26 position on the Madison County Board, calling false allegations that the board had failed to stop annexation by Granite City of the Archer Daniels Midland Co. grain elevator and soybean processing plant.

W. Lee Adams, auditor, said that the board did everything possible to stop the annexation but that Granite City had annexed the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks, making the city contiguous with the state Department of Public Air facilities and making the grain elevator and soybean plant annexations legal.

Patrick is opposing Louis Whitsett, Nameeki Township supervisor and County Board member who is seeking reelection to the District 26 seat. Bill Gibbons of Pontoon Beach also is seeking that post. Mrs. Helen Hawley, a citizen representative of township residents seeking improved drainage, presented the board with a copy of a letter she received from H. Jack Frandsen, chairman of the county's land use commission, indicating the township highway commissioner "has the responsibility to take action to cause the Madison County Board of Sanitary District to open blocked waterways in the township or 'to take action, itself, to protect his township streets and roads'."

The letter said water courses may be opened by the highway commissioner with the landowner's consent. "If the landowner object, the commissioner may employ the right of eminent domain," according to Frandsen.

A resident asked why pickets blocked the highway in front of the township garage and Whitsett explained that the highway department workers were on strike over failure to reach agreement on a new contract.

Whitsett said the township offices remain open and all operations, other than those of the highway department, are normal.

The dual 325 of the Teamsters Union walked out Thursday morning and began picketing. The union covers 11 employees. Wages and contract provisions are given as the reasons.

Whitsett said privately, "If I had the authority to negotiate a contract with them, they would not be walking that line now. Albert Bell, highway commissioner, has chosen to include me from this matter."

The board was informed it would receive $6,300 from the state Department of Public Air for March which will be made in two payments. Bills ordered paid included $40,370 from the town fund, $18,353 from the special hard road fund, $14,823 from the road and bridge fund, $2,966 from general assistance, $3,361 in municipal retirement, $566 from special bridge fund and $53,501 from federal revenue sharing funds.

Kiwanis to send Girl Scout to conservation seminar

The Granite City Kiwanis Club voted at its Monday night meeting at the Elks Club's Restaurant to send a Girl Scout, who is at least in the tenth grade, to a week-long conservation seminar.

Kiwanian Allen Jesse, chairman of the club's Boys and Girls committee, told the Kiwanians that the seminar would be held at Lakeland

Junior College near Mattoon, Ill., in mid-August. Bill Seebold reported that the July boat races at Horseshoe Lake are expected to attract over 30 top drivers and is shaping into an even bigger event than last year's.

President Howard Elbertson announced that next week a representative of the senior citizens of Granite City will be the club's guest.

Patrick, Buehler endorsed

The Tri-City Trades and Labor Council has approved the candidacy of Edgar Patrick 3819 Pontoon Road, as a member of the Madison County Board from the 26th District and Carl V. Buehler, 2600 Madison Ave., for the county board post from the 21st District.

Robert Walkenbach of Steelworkers Local 4804, vice-chairman of the county's Legislative Committee, said the endorsements were recommended by the committee and approved by the council membership.

Patrick is opposing Louis E. Whitsett and Carl V. Buehler is opposed by Daniel J. Partney in the 21st District.

Education

Under new guidelines adopted by the BHE, all capital projects costing $100,000 or more are to be approved by the BHE.

The proposed recreation area improvements will include: A beach house which will provide shower facilities, lockers and dressing room space for 80 men and 80 women. The building also will include a first-aid room, a food preparation area and minimal office space for recreation personnel and custodial services.

A boat dock and storage area which will provide servicing facilities for small sailboats used on Tower Lake. An information and control booth. A bicycle storage and rental service will be operated from the booth.

A covered picnic pavilion which will include fireplaces, restrooms and electrical outlets.

A new sewer break — this time in the form of a sinking catch basin — has developed at Amos Avenue and North Street, it was reported by the City Street Department this week.

Emerald Daws, chairman of the City Council's street and alley committee, said the catch basin and sewer lines leading into it is sinking near the point of an earlier sewer repair on the Amos Avenue line.

It is the 25th break reported since February 1973. The city has repaired 20 of the breaks at a cost so far of more than $1.1 million.

Court action scheduled

Ronald P. Lucas, recorder of deeds for Madison County, was to file suit today against the Madison County Board, asking for release of impounded funds from his department and requesting an opinion from the court as to whether the board has the right to force his department to utilize the county's data processing facilities.

The county board Tuesday voted to table all bills for the recorder of deeds office except for the salaries of Lucas' employees. Even Lucas' own salary was held up.

His office is the only county department which has not switched its billing and collection operations to data processing. The county board mandated in January that all departments must begin the transition to data processing. At that time the county clerk, treasurer and recorder of deeds were all declining to use the services of data processing.

County board

of the county's right-of-way committee, asked the board to approve the purchase of a portion of the right-of-way between the present south end of Maryville Road and Route 162 for future extension of the road. The board approved the purchase for $2,535.

Ten men were named to serve on the county's Manpower Advisory Committee. More members are to be named at a later date. Six will have full voting powers and three will share one vote. Sharing a vote are Darrell Stiles, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service in Granite City, Howard Brown who serves in the same capacity at Alton, and Milton Seigrist, manager of the state employment office in Edwardsville.

Having full votes will be: Jeff Tullach of SIMAPC; Miguel Garcia, a participant in the Emergency Employment Act program; Elvers Johnson of Madison, a member of the Madison School Board; Clarence Nicoles, an assistant administrator in the office of the superintendent of the educational service region; Robert Faust, business agent of the Electricians' Union; and Pack Frandsen, county board member from District 12, Wood River.

The county has received a $30,000 grant from the state to study which will be supervised by the new committee. The board approved an agreement with Operating Engineers Local 520 of Mitchell for the union's Joint Apprenticeship Training Program to use its equipment and trainees in improving the county nature trail from the east edge of the city to Edwardsville.

Louis Whitsett, chairman of the county's education and recreation committee, presented the agreement, saying a similar agreement already had been approved between the Alton and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The county will have to provide equipment to move the trainees machinery to the trail. The county approved the payment of $12,500 in rent to be used to purchase from Edwardsville property now being used as parking lot.

The board accepted the first reading of a resolution to use of microfilm equipment in the recorder of deeds office.

The clerk's office complied immediately and the treasurer's office began using data processing this week. Lucas said he is "not trying to hide anything," noting that under the present system all bills and claims are approved first by the county's finance committee and then the county board.

"We write few checks, 11 or 12 every two weeks, and it just would not be worth converting. Actually, all we are trying to do is to have a single operation of the office and we are asking the court for an opinion if it is within the power of the county to take away the recorder of deeds' own salary."

Harry Hartman, a Granite City attorney, has been retained by Lucas to file the suit. "I am paying Mr. Hartman with my own money," he said, adding, "The suit also will seek to have my salary released."

Job issue

Nameeki Township? "It is he trying to indicate that industry which will give our unemployed citizens a job should be driven away."

"Of course, we need to continue to work to protect our environment, but we also need places to work. "This insinuation that the township made no objection to this annexation was not just a political maneuver against his opponent, it was an unfair and unjust attack against the entire Township Board."

"He has based a major part of his campaign concerning compensation figures covering a 17-month period, apparently with the hope people would not study the article closely enough, and presume it was an annual salary."

"The compensation that Mr. Whitsett receives from the township was set by the electors (the citizens of Nameeki Township) at the annual meeting, prior to the beginning of his term of office, and was elected to receive the same rate."

"The citizens of Nameeki Township have always been encouraged to attend township meetings, and the records of the township are always open for public inspection, in an effort to make citizens aware of the operations of their local government.

"The facts that neither Mr. Whitsett's opponents have been concerned enough to attend any meetings during the past year or this year, may account for the fact that they are misinformed or ignorant of the facts concerning the matters they have been discussing."

"During the past few weeks, Mr. Patrick did request that he and his campaign manager be allowed to inspect the township records and they were allowed to do so."

"We considered it very complimentary that, after examining the records, the only issue he presented was a 17-month salary and expense figure for the supervisor."

"We, the members of the Township Board, and Mr. Whitsett do not always agree on every issue, but we have always been able to reach an agreement on what we feel is best for the township."

"Don't be confused with untruths. Louis Whitsett is working an evening shift on his job in order to be available during the day for his duties concerning the township and the County Board."

"On all occasions where a meeting conflicted with his regular job, he has made himself available for this meeting."

"We know that Louis Whitsett has always represented the citizens of Nameeki Township and his County Board district in an excellent manner, and we, the Nameeki Township Board, are proud to support him for reelection."

Boating course offered Monday

Comparisons of life jackets, minor boat trouble, boat loading and trailering, boarding and debarking, and standard boating operations will be the topics of instruction Monday during the Granite City Park District's skipper's outdoor specialty boating course beginning at 7 p.m. at the Nameki Recreation Center, Amos and Franklin avenues.

Recreation Director Mike Jesse said the three-hour course is designed to acquaint the novice boater with standard safe boating practices and serve as a refresher course for experienced boating enthusiasts.

The only charge for the course, which will be conducted by U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary personnel, will be a $1 textbook fee.

Further information may be obtained by interested persons by calling the park office at 877-3059.

Alton's track power felt by GC schools

Granite City High School North trackmen earned 14 1/2 points to top the Warriors of South and place second to Alton, which had 44 points, in a three team mini-track meet yesterday at South. The competition included only field events.

The North Steelers had one first place, two second, one third, and two fourth places in the six field event meet. Alton captured the remaining positions in each event.

Steelers Bob Sampson and Dwight Lewis set the pace by placing first and third in the pole vault contest. Sampson was first, clearing 13 feet, and Lewis took third with 12 feet.

South's Keith Watson was fourth with 11 feet and six inches.

Rich Demaree placed second for North in the high jump with six feet-one-half inches, while Keith Asher with a 5 feet, 4 inches jump.

Ed Opich threw the discus 143 feet for a Steeler second place finish. Doug Hartman of South took fourth with a 130 foot, three inch throw. Hartman also placed third in the shotput with 43 feet, 3/4 inches.

Warrior Tom Schooley was the only Granite City athlete to place in the long jump event, earning second with a jump of 18 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

Mark LaRose stretched his triple jump to 36 feet, 2 inches to capture fourth in that event.

South's jayvee team fared better than its varsity counterparts, shutting the Steelers out of second place with 11 points. North had two and Alton again was first with 50 points.

The Steelers are slated to compete at 9 a.m. Saturday in a full meet at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston.

Madison High School trackmen will seek to avenge last year's loss to Mascoutah when the Trojans play host to the Indians at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Trustees renew easement pact

An agreement which permits Union Electric Co. easements for power lines passing over district property was renewed by the East Side Levee and Sanitary District board in a recessed meeting at East St. Louis Monday afternoon.

The action followed expiration of a 25-year agreement allowing the easements to the utility. No fee charges for the easements were involved.

The board also took under consideration an application for approval of drainage facilities for a subdivision in the Dobrey Slough area where housing construction is proposed. The plan provides for a holding pond from which drainage would be pumped into the Route 203 stormwater line.

Levee trustees will hold their next meeting on April 3 at the Granite City office at 1707 Madison Ave.

Lily Days here begin Friday

The Easter Seal Youth council will hold "Lily days" in the Quad-Cities Friday and Saturday.

Monies raised by the sale of the lilies will be used for special services to physically handicapped children in the area.

Future plans call for a "Bike-a-Thon" on April 6.

4 hurt in Pontoon mishap

Four persons were injured and two drivers were ticketed as the result of a three-car accident on Pontoon Road, 300 feet west of the Alton & Southern tracks, at 12:50 p.m. Tuesday.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital were James Dutchik, 44, of 2370 Spaulding Ave.; his wife, Mary Dutchik, 41; Mrs. Jennifer Vaughn, 16, of the Spaulding Avenue address, all occupants of one car, and Edward Wright, 59, of 2408 Angela Drive, driver of one of the other cars.

Sheriff's deputies said the

Mrs. Lois Singer, 44, dies

Mrs. Lois Singer, 44, of Rural Route Seven, Box 159, Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City, died at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

She had been ill six months and a patient at the hospital four weeks.

Mrs. Singer was a member of the Belhel Chapel Pentecostal Church.

She is survived by her husband, John Singer; four daughters, Mrs. Nancy Singer Smith and Mrs. Deborah Smith Doolen, both of Granite City, and Miss Diane and Donna Singer of Edwardsville; a sister, Mrs. Doris Adams Murphy of Hazelwood, Mo.; one brother, Cecil Adams of Chicago; her mother, Mrs. Blanche Adams of Granite City and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

STEAL TELEVISION

A portable television, valued at $100, was stolen from the home of Don Achley, 2164 Lee Ave., in a burglary reported at 10:05 p.m. Thursday. The intruders entered the dwelling through a kitchen window.

STEAL ROTO TILLER

A roto tiller worth $175 was stolen from the garage of Gerald Broadwater, 2648 Lincoln Ave., after the garage door was pried open, it was reported at 8:35 p.m. Monday.

O'Fallon youth train victim

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. Wednesday at a Collinsville funeral home for Joseph T. Robinson, 17, O'Fallon, who was killed at 4:35 p.m. Sunday by an Amtrak train near Collinsville. Burial was in St. John Cemetery, Collinsville.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Romanick, Rural Route One, O'Fallon, identified the body after hearing a description of the victim on a newscast, sheriff's deputies said.

The youth was carrying no identification papers at the time of the accident and his identity was not determined until Monday afternoon.

N. E. Fry of Danville, Ind., engineer, told deputies the train had rounded a curve when he saw Robinson on the tracks. He said he blew the whistle but the youth moved slowly and did not get off the tracks before the train struck him.

Hearing set on Madison Zoning bill

A public hearing on a proposed new zoning ordinance for the city of Madison will be held at 7 p.m. Friday at the Madison City Hall, Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk reminded the City Council at its Tuesday night meeting.

John N. Bellocq, city clerk and chairman of the zoning committee, also urged the aldermen to attend along with citizens who are interested.

Two bids for the summer bituminous paving program were opened. Asphalt Concrete Corp. of St. Louis, bid $8.25 per ton and MacLair Asphalt Co. of Collinsville bid $11.10 per ton. The council approved the low bid with a stipulation that if the city is not satisfied with any future increase in price regardless of cause bidding may be reopened.

Subject to approval of the purchasing committee and Superintendent of Streets Elmer Smith, the council authorized purchase of a heavy-duty tandem truck for the street department. Bids received were $14,500 by "Bo" Buckman Ford of Collinsville; $15,066 Broadhead Motor Co. of East St. Louis; and $15,350 from Brewer Motor Co.

Permission was granted band students of Madison High School to set up a road block and sell candy; permission also was granted the Easter Seal Society to hold its Lily Day sale Friday and Saturday.

Building Inspector John Dutko reported that the legal department has been asked to process condemnation papers on properties located at 905 Grand Ave., 1617 Fifth St. and 1603 Second St.

Indian marksman, fouls thwart Devils, 63-57

NEXT-TO-LAST LEAD for Venice in super-sectional game Tuesday against Lawrenceville at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston. With the score 19-18, in the second quarter, Tony Sittion missed this free throw. The Red Devils later were ahead 21-20 on Ron Henry's turnaround shot but the Indians then built leads of 24-21, 34-25, 38-27, 48-40 and 52-44. Venice rallied in the final two minutes but lost 63-57. No. 11 is Reggie Gardner and No. 45 is Ron Henry. The Indians' No. 40 is Tim Wolfe. (Press-Record Photo)

Sweet 16, but not elite eight. Third among all Class A (750 or less enrollment) Illinois high schools in basketball competition a year ago, Venice repeated as sectional champion this year. But its 1974 express was derailed at Charleston Tuesday night in a 63-57 loss to Lawrenceville.

The eight super-sectional winners will converge on Champaign for the deciding games tomorrow and Saturday, while Venice's Red Devils and the other quintets defeated Tuesday must settle for a ninth-place tie—and thoughts of "Wait till you play us next year."

In some games, the turning point is when one team takes to the hardwood floor. But Venice was in the ball game all the way against the capable Lawrenceville Indians, who won in 1972, placed second last year and are 27-5 now as they head for the state tourney.

Venice's season ended with a record of 27 wins and four setbacks.

Statistics tell part but not all of the super-sectional story. Red Devil rebounding looked adequate in the final tally, a 27-19 edge over Lawrenceville. But the rebounding margin might have been more decisive had not Venice's 6-7 senior center, Ron Henry, been assessed a fourth personal foul after only 37 seconds of play in the third quarter.

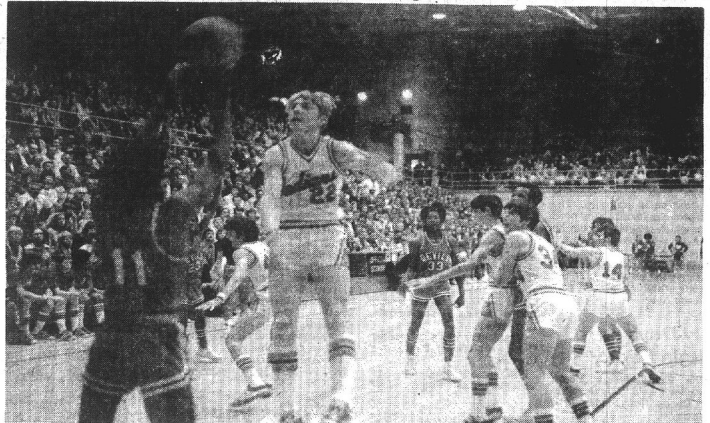

Venice managed 51 shots from the field and meshed 26 for better than 50 per cent marksmanship, but the Indians with only 47 attempts netted 28 for over 57 per cent accuracy. Henry amassed 25 points but with fewer fouls would have been able to play more aggressively and perhaps score even more points.

The Red Devils were called for 14 fouls to Lawrenceville's 13, almost identical totals, but the timing and nature seemed to do more harm.

Lawrenceville had only a 12-11 advantage in free throws attempted but scored seven to Venice's five. And the Red Devil misses at the free throw line appeared to occur on costlier occasions.

Another statistic: Lawrenceville's enrollment is 747 and Venice's is 194. The Indians opened the scoring but 5-11 Senior Tony Sittion tied it 2-2 with an 18-foot shot from the side.

A free throw by Mike Logan,

TIGHT LAWRENCEVILLE DEFENSE as Reggie Gardner of Venice attempts to place the ball in play from out-of-bounds in the second quarter of their super-sectional high school basketball game Tuesday night.

Mike Logan (23) is partly hidden and No. 33 of Venice is J. B. Harmon. Lawrenceville players include Jay Shidler (22), Rick Leighty (34) and Bill Heidebreder (14). (Press-Record Photo)

5-11 junior, cut a 4-2 deficit to 4-3 and Henry's rebound shot from five feet away brought the score to 6-3, setting the stage for a 7-6 Venice lead as six-foot Senior J. B. Harmon scored an easy goal after taking a pass.

With Henry hitting a charity throw and Harmon a layup on a well-timed feed, the Devils led 10-8.

Lawrenceville moved ahead but Logan was on target from the side to earn a 12-12 tie with five seconds left in the initial quarter.

Rick Leighty, at 6-3 the tallest Indian, scored three field goals in the initial period on his way to a team-leading total of 22 points for the game.

The finest hour for Coach Richard Essington's Venice squad was reached in the early going of the second quarter as Leighty and Stanley Dickinson scored to give Lawrenceville a 16-12 edge.

A Henry layup and free throw steal and layup by Sittion and Henry's 12-foot turnaround jump shot made it 19-16, Venice's largest lead of the game.

Bill Heidebreder and Tim Wolfe began to click offensively for the Indians and what proved to be the final Venice lead of the game was attained at 21-20 on Henry's five-foot goal.

Henry added an 18-footer and then a fantastic goal while falling forward, but when halftime arrived Lawrenceville had built a 30-25 lead.

A Lawrenceville fan commented to a friend, "Aren't those Indians something else?" A Venice fan interjected, "You haven't seen anything yet. It's going to be a different game in the second half."

However frequent fouls frustrated the Red Devils and they fell behind 34-25, 38-27 and 40-30 although Henry and Harmon dropped in rebounds and Sittion chalked up a free throw.

A six-point spree revived Venice hopes as Logan went the length of the floor on a steal and Harmon hit twice on difficult shots. This made it 46-36 but Jay Shidler hit from the side and it was 42-36 as the fourth period began.

The two teams traded goals as Sittion and Henry each connected on two shots from the field. A 50-44 Venice deficit developed and was deepened to 52-44 on a ten-foot goal by Wolfe. Sittion arched the ball in on an 18-foot effort from the side of the court and Henry snared a rebound and hit from the free throw circle for a 52-48 tally with 3:30 left.

Venice continued a tight zone defense but at this point Lawrenceville switched from man-to-man to more intense pressing tactics.

Leighty hit two goals and sophomore Reggie Gardner drove through the lane and scored despite being fouled.

When Henry rebounded and scored from ten feet away, the margin had been reduced to 56-52 with one minute and 51 seconds remaining.

There was still enough time to turn the tide of the game but Wolfe hit from the corner 23 seconds later. Henry took a pass from out of bounds and drove in for a score with 1:12 left, making it 58-54 and creating pandemonium among the crowd of 5,500 fans.

As Lawrenceville began a stall, Harmon fouled to gain possession and Shidler cashed in both throws for a 60-54 edge. This was cut to 60-56 by Henry with 44 seconds left when he hit one of two free throws. Sittion committed his fourth foul with 23 seconds left, Heidebreder tallying both free tosses.

Venice was able to penetrate the enemy defense and Gardner scored from the side. With the score 62-57, the clock showed only nine seconds to play. Sittion fouled out with four seconds to go, Heidebreder scoring the initial free throw and missing the second. Along with Henry's 25 points for the night, Harmon helped out with 12, Sittion 11, Logan five and Gardner, four.

Seniors who have completed their high school basketball careers include Harmon, Sittion, Henry and Ron Taylor. Averaging 66 per cent on his shots from the field this season, Henry has a career total of over 700 points.

Logan, a junior, will be joined next year by classmates Corrie and a Mike Henry.

Sophomores besides Gardner are James Crowder, Richard Bailey, Bernie Woodrume and James Turner.

Rebels, Midtown win. The Rebels and Midtown Pharmacy posted consecutive victories in Tuesday's Granite City Park District women's volleyball contests at Lincoln Place Community Center. The Rebels downed Apple Valley 15-3, 15-9, 15-2, and Midtown won on forfeits from Kentucky. Fried Chicken Mathews defeated Sammy's 15-5 and 15-7 and then lost 15-11.

Local youths chosen for semi-pro hockey league

Twenty-three athletes, ages 15 to 19, were selected by college scouts and coaches from Canada and Minnesota to form the St. Louis Area's first semi-professional ice hockey league, the Junior "B" Blazers.

Two players from Illinois were selected to join the Canadian originated program, Dave Rapoff and Rick Hodge, both of Granite City.

General Manager Charles Eberle said, "Selection was made from hockey players who we consider the best in this area."

"The boys," he continues, "must carry a grade level acceptable to college standards to remain on the team."

Eberle noted that the intent of the club is to benefit players to the extent that they will be able to compete nationally with other players for positions at universities and colleges which play major hockey, including St. Louis University.

"The majority of the nation's colleges choose their hockey players from this league," he said, "and until now were limited to selecting from mostly Canadian athletes."

"With the formation of the Junior Blazers," he added, "maybe now we can help the boys of this area to reach their life's ambition."

Rapoff and Hodge, both juniors at Granite City High School South, got their starts playing ice hockey four years ago with the Granite City Amateur Hockey League. Both have attended nationally recognized hockey training schools in Michigan and St. Louis.

"A good example of the opportunities open to these kids," commented Eberle, "is Bobby Orr. He was picked up from the Canadian 'B' League by the Boston Bruins, and is now one of the top hockey stars in the United States."

The Blazers boast a first season record of 33-3-3 (18-1 in league play) which they will carry into competition Saturday, March 23, against Canadian and other Northern American teams in a tournament at Detroit, Mich.

Coach Roy E. Lee of SIUE has picked his 22-player traveling varsity baseball squad which will head south Monday to prepare for its 44-game schedule.

Hockey tourney resumes Friday

Both Alton and East St. Louis Assumption fought without defeat through the two-week long MacClair High School Ice Hockey League season-ending tournament at the Wilson Park Rink to meet each other tomorrow at 10:15 p.m. for the tournament championship.

Alton, the undefeated league champion, downed Belleville 6-1 March 1 and then Wood River 7-2 during the past weekend to advance. Assumption defeated Collinsville 6-1 in first-round competition, and then scored in the waning seconds of its contest with the Granite City Midgets Friday to win 3-2 this weekend.

Granite City and the Alton "B" squad will meet at 11:45 p.m. Friday for the consolation championship.

Granite City defeated Belleville 8-7 and the Alton "B" team downed Collinsville 8-1 in consolation semifinal contests.

prepare for its 44-game schedule.

The 22 players, chosen from an original field of 150 who turned out for drills last fall, include two Granite City outfielders, Jim Greenwald and Jack Scarborough.

After warm-up sessions at St. Petersburg, home of the St. Louis Cardinals, the SIUE Cougars will play three single games with Eckard College and head north to Nashville, Tenn., for a doubleheader with a powerful Vanderbilt University March 26 and a twinnish the following day against nationally-ranked Austin Peay University.

Prior to those regularly scheduled games, the Cougars will take on the Philadelphia Phillies rookies and St. Petersburg Junior College in a pair of exhibition games.

SIUE will open its home season in the three-day Cougar Classic Tournament starting Friday, March 29, and concluding Sunday, March 31.

Papes a backbone of new SIU tennis squad

Joe Papes of Granite City and Marty Ablez of East St. Louis, veterans of last year's Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville tennis club, will return this year as the backbone of the new SIU tennis Cougars.

Papes, a junior, racked up a 41-3 record in three seasons at Granite City High School before attending SIU and last year he added the squad in compiling an 8-4 record in club play.

Ablez, now a sophomore, played under new Cougar Coach Ken DeMars at Assumption High School in East St. Louis. There he earned a 31-2 record.

After several years on a club team basis, tennis will become a full-fledged varsity sport at SIUE March 23.

That's the day that the Cougar tennis team will make its debut in a first meet at Kirkville, Mo. Joining the Cougars will be Central Missouri State University and host Northeast Missouri State University.

DeMars' teams at Assumption recorded a combined 58-15 record while he was head coach. There DeMars coached Jimmy Connors, who now is considered the top tennis player in the nation.

In addition to Papes and Ablez, DeMars has four top freshman prospects as well as three promising junior college transfers. One of those transfers, Jim Johnson, had a 14-2 record at Lewis and Clark Junior College last spring and placed third in the Illinois state junior college championship.

Johnson stands 6'6", weighs 210 pounds and possesses a tremendously powerful serve. A teammate of Johnson's at Lewis and Clark, John Ingles is another top player. John had a 17-1 record last spring.

Mark DeGure is another top junior college prospect. Mark comes to SIUE from Meramec Community College in St. Louis, where he played in a 18-9 record last spring. During his prep career at Cleveland High School in St. Louis, Mark won the Public High League singles championship.

Coach DeMars needs quality players like DeGure since the Cougars will be playing a tough schedule of Missouri and Illinois schools.

"The St. Louis area has long been recognized as a tennis hotbed, so I believe that SIUE tennis has an outstanding future," DeMars commented. "Our problem this year will be getting the program organized while playing schools that have fielded teams for many years."

SIUE will be playing top teams like Principia College and Northeast Missouri State. Northeast Missouri won the state tennis title last year while Principia's lineup features a number of California players.

In addition, the Cougars will be competing in the tough St. Louis Area Collegiate Athletic Association, a conference that includes Washington University, St. Louis University, the University of Missouri-St. Louis and Concordia Seminary. "With the exception of ourselves, all the other schools in the conference have established teams with experienced players. However, I still believe that the Cougars can finish with a 500 record," DeMars concluded.

JOE PAPES

AFL-CIO to develop jobs

A $4.7 million contract with the AFL-CIO Human Resources Development Institute (HRDI) to help provide new jobs and training for 25,000 unemployed persons was announced this week by Secretary of Labor Peter J. Brennan.

Under the one-year agreement, HRDI will develop 22,000 jobs for unemployed disadvantaged people and prepare and place an additional 1,000 minority youths as apprentices in the building and construction trades.

HRDI was established by the AFL-CIO in 1968 to mobilize labor movement resources in a nationwide program to help recruit, train, upgrade and hire the unemployed and underemployed through ongoing Labor Department programs.

HRDI operates 53 local offices and will shortly open its 54th in Alaska. Under the new contract, HRDI will use $3.2 million to develop 22,000 jobs as well as:

— Assist Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) prime sponsors, the National Alliance of Businessmen, federal agencies and others in the promotion and development of manpower training programs.

— Provide training and technical assistance to union representatives in cooperation with state and local manpower planning councils.

— Help returning veterans find union jobs through local HRDI offices.

— Develop at least 700 jobs for prisoners and ex-offenders; and — Manage and provide service and technical assistance for 21 Apprenticeship Outreach programs subcontracted to local building trades councils.

In addition to promoting and developing jobs, HRDI will place over 1,000 minority youths in apprenticeship through the Apprenticeship Outreach Program, with $1,500,000 in federal funding.

Included is $51,950 for placement of 40 apprentices in the area of East St. Louis.

Suspects released

Two Madison Men were questioned and later released following a shoplifting incident at Lender's Department Store, 19th and State streets, at 12:16 p.m. Tuesday.

Police said two men entered the store with one man "grabbing" a purple jacket and running from the building. Officers halted an auto occupied by the suspects, but the merchandise was not found, the report stated.

Resolve sewer break issue

Most questions over discrepancies in sewer repair bills of the firm, Ernest Co. contracting firm and city records have been resolved as a result of a meeting Monday afternoon in the firm's office at East St. Louis, Granite City officials reported.

Ernest Co. chairman of the City Council's street and alley committee, said Richard Sage, vice-president of the contracting firm which is under contract with the city to repair sewer breaks in the Nameoki area, is to send copies of the company's pay sheets, work schedules and daily work logs to the city for more detailed comparisons.

Mayor Paul Schuler said Monday's conference cleared up several questions over billings for dewatering and by pass pumping at sewer break sites. He said that differences between the firm's billings and records kept by Casner Skubish, the city's sewer inspector, apparently resulted from a misunderstanding of the operating engineers' contract which allows five days pay for shift work, even if the shift work does not last five days.

The meeting with officials of the firm was arranged by Duquesne after an apparent difference of about $100,000 in billing by the firm and records kept by Skubish developed. Monday's meeting also was attended by Alderman Claude Green, a member of the street and alley committee.

Plan awards for research

A University Research Scholar award program has been developed at SIUE to help stimulate research on the campus, according to Vaughn J. Lindsay, dean of the SIUE Graduate School.

The program is being sponsored by the Graduate School and the Schools of Business, Fine Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, and Science and Technology. Only members of the faculty of the sponsoring schools are eligible for the award.

Dean Lindsay said the recipient of the award will receive one-third released time plus full funding of the project, not to exceed $2,000. "The award will be made directly to the principal investigator of an outstanding research proposal," she said.

Proposals previously submitted are ineligible for participation in the program, she said. Interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary team research projects, as well as research proposals on contemporary problems, will be encouraged.

Review and evaluation of the proposals will be made by the School Research and Projects Review Committee, external consultants and, finally, an all-university research committee. Deadline for proposals is May 1; the winner will be announced by July 1.

DeMolay Week opens Sunday

Members of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will observe the 55th International DeMolay Week from Sunday to March 24.

DeMolay was brought to Granite City and the State of Illinois by Granite City Chapter 221, Royal Arch Masons, who still serve as the chapter's sponsoring body.

The local chapter received its Letters Temporary on May 5, 1921, as Granite City Chapter, the first chapter of the international order east of the Mississippi.

The name of the chapter was changed on Jan. 1, 1968, to James Stuart Chapter in memory of Chapter Advisor James Stuart, known as "Uncle Jimmy" to thousands of local boys and others throughout Illinois and Missouri. For 33 years, until his death Oct. 3, 1965, he was the driving force behind DeMolay activities in Granite City.

William A. Cochran Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cochran Sr. and master counselor of James Stuart Chapter, said that the 1974 theme, "A New Tomorrow with DeMolay Today," was chosen because the organization develops leadership and character in its members. He said that in addition to providing worthwhile activities for young men, the order builds character and leadership qualities while helping better the community.

During the week of special anniversary activities the chapter's program will start by attending the First Assembly of God Church, 23rd Street and Grand Avenue on Sunday. DeMolays and their families will assemble at the church at 9:45 a.m. for the 10 a.m. service.

On Tuesday, the chapter will host a District 16 meeting during which district officers will confer the Initiatory Degree upon candidates from the local chapter as well as other chapters in the district. Also on Tuesday the Egyptian Preceptory Legion of Honor will hold a dinner meeting at the Elk's Club in Belleville. On Friday, members of the chapter and the DeMolay Brass Band will journey to Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children to entertain the children at an evening party. DeMolays will leave from Reese Drug Store, Belleme Village, at 5:30 p.m. for the trip to the hospital.

Top ratings awarded MHS students in music meet

Madison High School students participated during the weekend in the Illinois High School Association Music Solo and Ensemble contest at Freeburg, Ill., and were awarded a series of first and second place ratings.

Instrumental first place ratings were flute trio, Peggy Stagner, Cindy Cogan and Judy Wilimsh; double reed trio, Dolores Pinkley, Stephanie Clark, and Kelly Dutko; French horn quartet, Cindy Bevil, Robert Hall, Brenda Gruenfelder and Christine Gorka; woodwind quintet, Maggie York, Kelly Dutko, Robert Hall, Peggy Stagner, and Dolores Pinkley; brass sextet, Tim Flisk, Mark Luszewski, Tom Harris, Gary Doza, Cindy Bevil and Joan Hollenbeck.

Instrumental second place ratings: mixed clarinet quartet.

Karen Lassen, Judy Govoy, Donna Holt and Darlene Geshe; violin solo, Peter Lecko.

First place ratings in vocal events were: Louis Arnold, Nathaniel Boyd and Williamia Watts.

Second vocal ratings: vocal solo, Donna Murray; vocal duo, Ragina London and Nathaniel Boyd, and Sandy Walliser and Louis Arnold; girls double ensemble, Karen Walliser, Donna Murray, Vivian Turner, Ragina London, Sandy Walliser, and Charlene Johnson.

The instrumental events were directed by William F. Ledbetter and vocal events by Mrs. Valerie Stevens.

Accompanists were Miss Beth Ann Ledbetter and Mrs. Stevens.

Office looted

An electric typewriter and a postal meter containing about $500 worth of postage, were stolen from an upstairs office at Consolidated Flavors, 2165 Benton St., it was reported Monday. There were no signs of forced entry into the building, but a door to the upstairs was forced open with a crowbar.

Two floor scrubbers and an intercom unit were found on the back porch where they apparently had been dropped after being removed from the building.

THEFT FROM GARAGE

Three young people were seen leaving the garage of Burl Ottinger, 2528 Grand Ave., and entering a green auto at 9:40 p.m. Monday. Upon investigation, it was noted that a tool box containing about $700 worth of tools had been stolen.

THEFT FROM TRUNK

Items worth about $233 were stolen from the trunk of the car of Michael Podnar, Glen Carbon, parked at 20th and Iowa streets, it was reported Monday. The truck lock was broken. Taken were the spare tire, the jack, a rod and reel, a tackle box and a socket wrench set.

STOP ROOFING PROBLEMS NOW!

PLASITEX ROOFING

REPAIRS Fill small cracks and nail holes, replace rotten rafters, boards, roof granules, lay down shingles and, at the same time, give a beautiful new look.

INSULATES The Plastix coating forms a reflective elastomeric shield over the entire roof. This helps keep interior cooler in summer, warms in winter, reduces air conditioning and heating costs. Retains plastic.

PRESERVES Moisture doesn't get through so there's no deterioration of the roofing material. The coating resists the harmful effects of smoke, fumes, salt air, sunlight and general weathering. Rejuvenated roof can extend additional years of life with less maintenance.

SAVES One coat of Elastomeric Plastix Elastomer can save the owner many dollars. It can also eliminate the cost of repair and replacement of building materials, yet extend the useful life of all types of structures.

DECORATES Attractive colored Liquid Plastix Elastomer gives uniform appearance to old, peeling surfaces... and adds beauty and new life to full weathered roofs.

Mathematics field day is Saturday

More than 450 students from 40 area high schools in Illinois and Missouri are expected to participate Saturday in the fifth annual Mathematics Field Day at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

According to Paul Phillips, coordinator of the SIUE-sponsored program, students will be involved in competition on both an individual and team basis.

Competitive examinations in math will be given according to sophomore, junior and senior class rank. Examinations will be graded and awards to individuals and teams will be given in each rank.

The top four individual winners will each receive a one-year tuition scholarship to SIUE. Examinations will be held between 10 and 11 a.m. in the Science Laboratory building.

From 9:30 a.m. to noon, Prof. Robert Pendergrass of the SIUE mathematics department will conduct a panel discussion dealing with the unexceptional child for area high school teachers.

Also stolen were two cameras, four $100 tickets to a political dinner, a $75 calculator and a tape recorder.

The meeting at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare in Rosemont will feature a panel of school finance experts consisting of: George H. Wirth, New Athens school board member and IASB treasurer, who will moderate; Alan J. Dixon, state treasurer; Harold A. Hovey, director of the Illinois Bureau of the Budget; and Fred Bradshaw, director of finance and claims, Office of Public Instruction.

IASB has publicly criticized last year's school finance proposals of both Governor Daniel Walker and State Superintendent Michael Bakalis.

Don D. Brennan, project coordination manager of the Illinois Capital Development Board, will speak at a noon luncheon.

The board shares responsibility for awarding state grants for school construction and a debate is shaping up over the decisions which local school boards are asked to surrender

Supplemental income plan

The Supplemental Security Income program is a new federal-state plan intended to provide a dignified, uniform, minimum income through federal payments for people who are 65 or older, or blind or disabled, and who have little or no income.

Unearned income less than $160 for an individual per month, or $230 for a couple per month.

Have resources (cash, stocks, bonds, etc.) not more than $1,500 for an individual or $2,250 for a couple. (You may own your home, your car and household goods of reasonable value; these are not considered as resources.)

People who were already getting State public assistance payments because they were aged, blind or disabled before Dec. 31, 1973, were automatically transferred to Supplemental Security Income payments. Recipients of Supplemental Security Income payments in Illinois also become automatically eligible for Medicaid.

Boards to study state school funding issues

State funding for schools will be the center of attention at a March 16 meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards, Council of Large Districts.

Donald Stuck, president of the Granite City Board, is vice-chairman of the statewide Council.

The program will deal with both regular state aid and state assistance for school construction.

Although the program is sponsored by the large district arm of IASB, it is open to personnel from all Illinois school districts.

Two boys jumped from the car and ran. One was stopped at the scene and the other escaped.

A woman in the 1700 block of State Street, Alton, saw the second boy running and stopped him until police arrived.

Officers searched the car and allegedly found a shotgun inside.

Police charged both boys as juveniles but Monday found out that Delp was 17 years of age.

The other boy, age 15, was from Wood River.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR

The auto of John Robbers, 3250 Westchester Drive, was stolen from his home Monday and was recovered a short time later.

Shrine Oriental band in St. Patrick parade

In the Shrine Oriental Band of Anand Temple will be among the more than 100 units marching in the annual Metropolitan St. Patrick's Day Parade Saturday in St. Louis.

Parade Chairman Joseph B. McGlynn Jr. said the parade will be the largest since he launched it five years ago. He said the Irish Guard from Notre Dame University and the U. S. Navy Steel Drum Band from Puerto Rico also will participate.

The Irish Guard of eight Notre Dame students dressed in beaverkin hats and kilts. The 12-man Steel Drum Band is from San Juan and made a hit at last year's parade.

The parade will be led by Martin F. Keaveney of Sligo, Ireland, who will fly in for the event.

Aer Lingus will fly in shamrocks from Ireland to distribute along the parade route, and clowns will pass out candy and balloons.

The parade will begin at noon at 14th and Olive streets, move east on Olive to Broadway, south past the old post office and end at Bush Stadium.

The Oriental Band won the first place trophy last year at the Great Lakes Association of Shrine Oriental Bands Jam-boree held in Rockford. Joseph Wallace is president of the band and Avery Schermer is band director; both are Granite Cityans.

Youth faces weapon charge

Sammy Delp, 17, of Cottage Hills, was charged Monday with unlawful use of a weapon and criminal trespass to a vehicle.

Delp was one of two youths arrested Sunday after the auto of June Jackson, 3712 Kirkpatrick Homes, allegedly was stolen from her home and was chased from Madison by a Madison police car.

Granite City police set up a roadblock in the 1700 block of State Street. As the stolen car approached, it slowed for the roadblock, then turned into a yard at 1716 State St., crashed through a fence into a yard at 1712 State St., and hit the garage and car of Raymond Hunt at that address.

Two boys jumped from the car and ran. One was stopped at the scene and the other escaped.

Youth Focus

No, No promises to be a Yes, Yes!

No, No, Nanette! should be a Yes, Yes for those who enjoy musical comedy.

"No, No, Nanette!" will be presented by Granite City High School North students with curtain time at 8 p.m. Friday, March 29, in the GCHS South auditorium.

The cast of 10 principal players and 25 chorus members has been selected and is in rehearsal.

The role of Pauline will be played by Elizabeth Doroghazi, Lucille Early by Pam Reinhardt, Sue Smith by Mary Vesci, Jimmy Smith by Tom Wilkerson, Billy Early by Brian Chastain, Tom Trainor by Paul Ascher, Nanette by Lynne Fossum, Flora Latham by Kathy Bennett, Betty Brown by Kathy Evans, and Winnie Winslow by Debra Harvey.

Members of the chorus are Kimberly Barr, Sabrina Basden, Shelly Connor, Carla Cooper, Darlene Fletcher, Dana Hackethal, Cathy Lipscomb, Diane Marcus, Carolyn Mih, Andrea Miles, Barb Miller, Cindy Myatt, Tammy Pence, Anne Rowden, Pam Simpson, Cindy Snider, Deborah Popovchak, Larry Libby, Lynn Martin, Jeffrey Sherman, William Patterson, Randy Spurlock, Dave Edington, Bob Meyer, and Jacqui Elliff.

The production is under the direction of Dr. Goni Michaeloff. Mrs. Gail Mueller is in charge of vocal presentation and the stage band will be conducted by Robert Todoroff. Set designing is being done by Gene Alkassi, Larry Lipe, Robert Moske and Antonio Betancourt.

Roger Waldrup is in charge of scenery construction and Mrs. Mildred Collins is supervising costumes.

Donald Atkinson will manage sound and Ralph Mangan will supervise video taping of the production.

Tickets in advance are 75 cents for students and $1.50 for adults and may be purchased between 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. daily in North's Cafeteria.

At the door tickets will be $1 for students and $2 for adults. Student activity tickets are not acceptable at the door. All seats will be reserved and Dr. Michaeloff is urging both adults and students to purchase tickets well in advance to avoid disappointment, as a sellout crowd is expected.

Arrow Scouts pancake day

The Order of the Arrow pancake and sausage day will be held Sunday, March 24, at St. Elizabeth Church, Johnson and Ponton roads, it was announced by Jeff Tolliver, vice chief of the Cahokia Lodge. Serving will be from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tolliver said patrons will be served "all they can eat" for $1.75 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

Proceeds will be used to finance improvements at Camp Sunnen. The Order of the Arrow is a national brotherhood of Scout honor campers.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from members of the Order of the Arrow or at the local Boy Scout Service Center, 1328a Niedringhaus Ave.

Univah Chapter Chief Mike Siebert is in charge of tickets and is the "head chef." Chris Spahn is in charge of workers, and Regina Memmerick is acting as advisor to the event.

The ageless beauty of miniature Moorish tiles is captured in this Armstrong cushioned vinyl floor

Capricorn
Bright Step vinyl by Armstrong

We call it Capricorn. You'll call it breathtaking as you stroll down an ancient tiled walk on this Armstrong vinyl floor. Subtle colors blend tastefully together to recreate the multicolor effect of a natural courtyard. Beautiful yet practical, too, with its tough vinyl wear layer that's durable and easy to keep bright and shiny. A thick layer of foamed vinyl beneath adds comfort and quiet to make Capricorn ideal for your favorite room.

MISS JUDITH FLACH, the fiancée of Army Private Richard Lamb. Their engagement is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Flach, 2651 E. 23rd St. An April wedding is planned.

Judith Flach is bride-to-be

Mr. and Mrs. George Flach, 2651 E. 23rd St., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Judith Flach, to Army Private Richard Lamb. Pvt. Lamb is a son of Mrs. Helen Lamb, 2049 Grand Ave. He presently is stationed at Key West, Fla.

Miss Flach attended Sacred Heart School and graduated in June 1973 from Granite City High School. She is employed at the Bank of St. Louis.

Plans are being completed for a wedding on April 19 at St. John United Church of Christ.

Circle 835 hears convention plans

State and national convention plans of the Daughters of Isabella were reviewed at a meeting of Our Lady of Fatima Circle 835 held at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Miss Irma Manning, vice-regent, conducted the session and announced the slate convention will be held May 17 through May 19 at the Ramada Inn, Springfield. Registration will be from 12:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. May 17.

The national convention will take place in August in Boston, Mass. Miss Manning announced.

Other dates of interest reported at the business session included a corporate communion at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church at the 10 a.m. mass, March 31, and the circle's April 4 guest night and buffet dinner, starting at 6:30 p.m., in St. Elizabeth School cafeteria. Mrs. Ann Pare was named chairman of the latter event.

Birthdays celebrated at the meeting were those of Mrs. Margaret Waller, Mrs. Clara Hoedebeck, Mrs. Rose Griffin and Mrs. Veronica Patrick.

Mrs. Vera Carey reported on a workshop held in Collinsville when plans for the state convention were made. Tribute was paid to the late Mrs. Ann Walsh of St. Louis, a past supreme regent of the Daughters of Isabella, and to the late Mrs. Elvera Bertacchi, a member of Circle 835.

Mrs. Mary Horvat gave the closing prayer and refreshments were served to 27 members by Mesdames Ann Kientzy, Cecil Mance, Pauline Meszaros, Dell Miller, Agnes Roderick, Virginia Sever, Maxine Tawney, Margaret Waller, Wilma Mance and Miss Dorothy Hoedebeck.

BRIDE-ELECT. Miss Karleen Steele, who will become the bride of Richard Bridges on June 15. Their engagement is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Steele of Edwardsville.

Karleen Steele to marry in June

Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Steele of Edwardsville are announcing the engagement and plans for a June wedding of their daughter, Miss Karleen Steele, to Richard Bridges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Bridges of Abasrooke, Mont.

The bride-elect, lived in Granite City while teaching at Parkview School. She now resides in Shawmut, Mont., and is employed by Wheatland County School District 20 in Shawmut.

Her fiancé is a rancher and an employee of Absarokee Ranch Supply Co.

Plans for a June 15 wedding are being completed.

Ladies Coterie chooses delegates

Delegates to attend the Madison County Federation of Women's Clubs Spring meeting were selected by the Ladies Coterie at its monthly meeting at the First United Presbyterian Church.

Those named to represent the local club are Mrs. Marvin Eddington, Mrs. Alfred Pape, Mrs. James Fox, Mrs. Raymond Horn and Mrs. Walter Johnson. The federation gathering will be April 3 at the First Congregational Church in Highland.

Mrs. Fred Werner was hostess for the day and Mrs. A. C. Stoever introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Alma Paschedag, from Michel's Gift Shop and Gift Shop.

Mrs. Paschedag spoke on china, silver and crystal, noting the items should be coordinated with an individual's personality. China first was made in the Orient and crystal initially came from Italy, she explained.

The club collect was led by Mrs. E. J. Griffiths and the pledge of allegiance was given by Mrs. Marvin Eddington. Mrs. E. F. Reiske accompanied the members in group singing. Prizes were provided by Michel's Gift Shop and were won by Mrs. Eddington, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. E. H. Theis.

Coterie members will next meet March 21 with Mrs. Dawson Wade as hostess and Mrs. R. E. Chapman as program chairman.

Homemakers study metric system

The Granite City Unit of the Madison County Homemakers Extension Association, meeting at Grace Baptist Church, heard a lesson, "Make It Metric," given by Janet Mueller, extension advisor from Edwardsville.

Mrs. Robert Heintz, chairman, presided and reported an annual tea for new members will be held March 29 at the Farm Bureau office in Edwardsville.

Mrs. Eugene Osburn, first vice-chairman, announced the "Town and Country Art Show" is set for May. Mrs. Ray Uram, 4-H leader, reviewed activities of the Mountspencers 4-H Club, planned during the next two months.

The lesson in May will focus on making tote bags, rain bonnets and pith helmets. Mrs. Altha Taylor, craft chairman said. She also reported the Sagamore County Arts and Crafts Festival will take place March 21-22 at the Illinois State Fairgrounds in Springfield.

Oriental cookery, a program topic at the April meeting, will be given by Mrs. Pure and Mrs. Rufus Ramsey. They will coordinate the lesson with the hostesses who are planning to serve an oriental luncheon.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Arthur and John Johannmeier, C. L. Lewis and Joseph Michaels. A St. Patrick's Day theme was used in the table appointments.

Mrs. Davis to head MS drive

Mrs. Leonard B. (Hulda) Davis, 3728 Fair Oaks Drive, has been named chairman of the 1974 Multiple Sclerosis Society's "Hope Chest" campaign in the Granite City area. The announcement was made by C. Warren Road, chairman of the St. Louis Area Chapter's board of trustees.

Mrs. Davis said today, "This year's house to house phase of the campaign will take place Saturday through Monday in the Quad-City region." This is the first year the local resident has headed an MS drive.

Because multiple sclerosis, a crippling neurological disease of the central nervous system, most often attacks young adults between the ages of 20 and 40, the 1974 fund raising drive is built around an "Athletes vs. MS" theme, Mrs. Davis explained.

Ara Parseghian, Notre Dame's football coach and campaign chairman for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, said the idea is to involve athletes at all levels...

professional, collegiate, high school and local... in a comprehensive program designed ultimately to raise millions of dollars for MS research and patient services.

Mrs. Davis said, "Response from the sports world so far has been overwhelming with help coming from such stars as Lee Trevino, Billie Jean King, Mohammad Ali and Joe DiMaggio."

Locally, Jim Hart, quarterback for the St. Louis Football Cardinals, together with other Cardinal football players are assisting in the campaign, as well as the St. Louis Soccer Stars and the St. Louis Hockey Blues.

"Nevertheless," she pointed out, "the bulk of the money raised this year will, as in past years, come from the house to house marches in the local areas throughout the country."

Since it was organized in 1946, the National Multiple Sclerosis Society has allocated more than $22.5 million in research grants and fellowships to study multiple sclerosis.

Currently, Washington University in St. Louis has $465,000 in cumulative grants. In 1972, the St. Louis Area MS Chapter provided over 33,000 units of service to MS patients in the 72 counties of Southern Illinois and Eastern Missouri, Mrs. Davis advised.

Mayors of the Quad-Cities have issued a proclamation setting the coming weekend for the MS Hope Chest Appeal.

The document states in part: Whereas: Multiple Sclerosis, the mysterious disease of the central nervous system, afflicts approximately 5,000 people in the area served by the St. Louis Area Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, and Whereas: A dedicated group of men and women have

Miss Edwards earns nurse diploma

Miss Connie Jo Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Edwards, 2258 Benton St., was among 63 nursing students graduating this week from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing, St. Louis.

Miss Edwards has accepted a nursing position at St. Elizabeth Hospital and will assume her duties here on April 1.

Her graduating class was the 32nd class to complete the nursing course at St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing. The school was organized in 1889 and is one of the oldest west of the Mississippi River and the oldest in the state of Missouri.

The commencement exercises were held in the First Presbyterian Church of Kirkwood, Mo.

Principal speaker was Oliver H. Duggins, Ph.D., chairman of the Life Science Department, Forest Park Community College, and a faculty member at St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing.

Harry M. Piper, managing director of St. Luke's Hospitals, presented the diplomas to the new graduate nurses and a school pin was awarded each class member by Mrs. Lorraine

GC Business Women win 'Club of Year'

The coveted "Club of the Year" award was presented this week to the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club for the second consecutive year.

The honor denotes the local club as the outstanding achievement group in several categories within District 14 of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Two other top awards were received by the Granite City BPW Club at the District 14 luncheon meeting at Fischer's Restaurant in Belleville.

Mrs. Shirley Adams won the district "Speak-Off" event and the local club's scrapbook captured first place honors in the district contest.

All three areas of competition, including Mrs. Adams' presentation, will be entered for further awards in statewide contests at the Illinois Federation's convention set April 25 to April 28 at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis.

Mrs. Lil Marzful, Granite City president, accepted the "top club" award and Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula, scrapbook chairman, was presented the award in that category.

In a fourth contest, Mrs. Linda Givens, Young Career Women representative of the local club, was chosen runner-up to Miss Mary Ann Post of the Fairview Edgemont BPW Club.

District 14 officers elected at the spring meeting, include: Mrs. Lucille Schneider, O'Fallon, chairman; Miss Dorothy Padlock, Alton, first vice-chairman; Mrs. Marilyn Cunningham, Cahokia, second vice-chairman; Mrs. Lil Marzful, Granite City, recording secretary; Mrs. Betty Fursey, Fairview-Edgemont,

PTA plans dance festival

Dorothy Phelps, president of the Lake Grade School Parent Teachers Association, announced during a meeting of the PTA Executive Board this week that the association's next regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday will feature a Spring Dance Festival.

The festival, under the direction of Miss Jan Mehele, will be highlighted by demonstration of folk and square dancing by 10 students representing each grade level of the school.

The board's nominating committee reported at Monday's meeting on a slate of officers for the 1974-75 school year. The board set Friday, May 3, as the date of the school's annual Spring Carnival.

Monday's dance program will conclude with fifth and sixth-grade students of Lake School performing to the Virginia Reel. Refreshments will be served.

Emerson elects Mrs. MacLaughlin

Mrs. Sheila MacLaughlin was elected president of Emerson Parent-Teacher-Association at a meeting Tuesday evening at the school. She succeeds in office Mrs. Janet Kienle.

A capacity crowd attending the session also viewed a gymnastics demonstration by 30 Emerson students from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The youngsters climbed ropes, exhibited tumbling skills and played a volleyball game under the direction of Albert Lewis Jr., physical educator teacher.

Other PTA officers elected to serve during the 1974-75 school year, include: Mrs. Carol Funkhouser, vice-president; Mrs. Carolyn Curtis, secretary; and Mrs. Lillie Paul, treasurer.

Mrs. Kienle conducted the business session and announced the new executives will be installed at the next bi-monthly meeting in May. She also reported the school picnic will take place May 16 in Wilson Park.

Mrs. Brenda Kamm, chairman of last weekend's fund-raising carnival at Emerson School, said the event was "highly successful."

Over $600 contributed at the carnival is now available in the PTA treasury to finance student field trips and purchase items for use at the school, she reported.

Styling program Sunday at school

An all-day hair shaping and styling program, sponsored by the Hair Fashion Committee of Elite Hairdressers' Association, Affiliate 33, will take place Sunday at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture.

A special morning worship will involve only specific affiliate members, with all area beauticians invited to attend the general session, beginning at 12:30 p.m.

No charge will be made to Elite Hairdressers' members. Non-members will contribute a $5 fee and student admission is $2.50.

Guest artist will be Tino Costantina, past styles director of the St. Louis Hair Fashion Committee and a member of the Missouri Hair Fashion Committee.

The noted cosmetologist has won many hair styling awards. He will show the latest trends in shaping and styles, the sponsors reported.

Treasurer race attracting most interest at state level

Statewide primary balloting in Illinois this year has focused principal attention on the Republican state treasurer race between Mrs. Jeannette Mullen of Barrington and Harry Page of Springfield.

The Press-Record recommends Mrs. Mullen, a certified public accountant who has extensive state administrative experience. Her official and volunteer service to Illinoisans has been of such high quality that she is the clear choice for the nomination.

Incumbent State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon of Belleville is unopposed of the Democratic ballot.

For the U. S. Senate, by a wide margin, we favor nominating Democratic Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III and Republican George M. Burrill. Both have opposition in the primary.

Congressman Price has opposition in next week's primary

Democratic primary voting for Congress in the 23rd District pits together the 30-year incumbent, Melvin Price, 69, East St. Louis, and William Bordeaux, 27, East Alton, a teacher.

Sen. Price is chairman of the House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee and the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

Ranking member of the House Armed Services Committee, he is chairman of its Research and Development Committee. In a new term, Price would be the dean of the Illinois Congressional delegation, and he already is one of the half-dozen most influential members of Congress.

The veteran legislator from this district is strongly recommended.

Democratic Central Committee race between four candidates

In addition to selecting precinct committeemen next Tuesday, each major party will elect a 23rd Congressional District state central committeeman.

The Republican candidate, William D. Stiehl, Belleville, has held the committeeman post eight years and is unopposed. The husband of a state representative, he is a lawyer.

Stiehl has been treasurer of the Illinois Republican State Central Committee since 1966.

On the Democratic side, many voters would like to end the service of former East St. Louis Mayor Alvin Fields but his re-election prospects are bolstered by the fact that opposing votes will be splintered three ways.

Since the district includes only part of Madison County, the outlook for a victory by either James F. Chapman or Richard Allen is not as great as might otherwise be the case. But Chapman may attract heavy Collinsville and Quad-City backing due to organization endorsement.

The St. Clair County alternative to Fields, Mrs. Carolyn Chapman of Belleville, is reportedly a former Recorder of Deeds James Chapman. Her record of community service has been of high caliber and quantity and she deserves consideration for the position.

Judicial primary battles at Appellate and Circuit levels

Judicial choices have been limited by court rulings this year but some spirited races remain.

Unopposed is John M. Karns Jr., Belleville, seeking the Democratic nomination for a Fifth Judicial District Appellate Court judgeship (the vacancy created when Judge Joseph H. Goldenhersh advanced to the Illinois Supreme Court). No one has filed for this post on the Republican ballot.

For a new judgeship at the Appellate level, the ballot shows three Democrats and a lone Republican, Lehman D. Krause, Centerville.

Krause was not recommended in an evaluation by the Illinois State Bar Association, and a write-in campaign has been started for Peyton H. Kuncie, Murphysboro, a circuit judge with 21 years' experience on the bench; he is currently assigned to the Fourth Appellate District.

Both Karns and Kuncie appear to be well qualified.

In a three-way Democratic race between Robert B. Maucker, Godfrey, Charles E. Jones, McLeanboro, and Von Allan Carlisle, Trenton, only the first two received full Bar Association recommendation.

Maucker, 59, is a highly regarded attorney who has practiced law for about three decades. Jones, 49, has been a judge 20 years, including three years as an appointed Appellate Court justice in this district.

On the basis of his judicial experience, Judge Jones would appear to be preferable to Mr. Maucker by a narrow margin.

In the Third Judicial Circuit, Judge William Beatty is up for retention and will not be on the ballot until November.

Circuit judges without Democratic primary opposition are John Gitchoff of Glen Carbon for the post of former Judge I. H. Streep and Moses W. Harrison II of Collinsville for the position of the late Judge J. O. Jones Jr. Both Gitchoff and Harrison are serving by appointment in the judicial posts they seek.

Rivals for the post of former Judge Michael Kinney are Victor J. Mosele, 48, Alton, and William E. "Bill" Johnson, 43, Edwardsville Rural Route Seven. The former has been a circuit judge by appointment for 15 months and the latter has been a magistrate and then an associate judge for a total of eight and a half years.

Both seem conscientious in wanting to improve the court system. We favor Judge Mosele due to his greater experience with major civil litigation and criminal felony cases.

Legislative candidacy by two House incumbents, 13 others

With 11 Democrats seeking two state representative nominations in the 56th Legislative District, voters are faced with a considerable challenge next Tuesday. Those nominated will be heavily favored to gain two of the three House seats in November.

With Rep. Leland Kennedy retiring, the seniority and experience of Rep. Horace Calvo, a Granite City attorney, will have increasing importance in this district. He is endorsed for a fourth two-year term.

David Partney, a businessman, pledges that he would serve aggressively on behalf of this area and region, and would open a full-time office within the district.

Wendell Durr, an Edwardsville lawyer, served diligently as a Constitutional Convention delegate. Steve Maragides, a Madison area lawyer, would seek to place added emphasis on Southwestern Illinois needs in General Assembly deliberations.

On the Republican side, four seek two legislative nominations, including Rep. Robert J. Walters, Alton, running for a third consecutive term. Operator of a public relations firm, he devotes extensive time to legislative duties and has become familiar with Quad-City needs.

Everett G. Steele, a local realtor and former Granite Cityan who resides in Glen Carbon, has participated in community service activities and would work to end waste of state funds.

Ralph Astorian of Granite City, a power company statistician, has been active in efforts to bolster the two-party system in Madison County.

The FORUM

Past campaign promises unfulfilled

To the Editor:

There is a three-way race in District 14 for the County Board March 19 and as an interested resident of Nameoki Precinct 3 I have a few words and thoughts.

The last election time, I worked for Al Doerr. At that time I truly believed him to be a sincere person, but during his term as a member of the County Board, I have found him very capable of making a fool out of those who believed in him.

One of his big "promises" was that of a sewer for persons in Nameoki 3. In fact, I, myself, took around petitions to this effect, compliments of Mr. Doerr.

Residents were more than happy to sign these petitions for sewers, as the sewers are badly needed. But, alas, until election time rolled around again, no one heard any more about these sewers.

I realize that a project such as this takes a great deal of planning and money. But I have certainly felt like a fool around my neighbors after giving them such high, but false, hopes.

In my opinion, if a County Board member, or hopeful, cannot produce, it would be much more honest to make any promises that may or may not be fulfilled.

There are many more incidents that Mr. Doerr himself is aware of.

Neighbors, please accept my apology for misleading you in the last election, detest making mistakes. That is why this election I am voting for Bill Thoeke.

Fine new building for Chouteau area

To the Editor:

Campaign promises and criticism of my husband (Chouteau Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks) and the Township Board are appearing in all Mr. Thoeke and his ghost writers have to offer to the voters before election, because they know it is all political but.

In nearly every issue of the Press they publicize some news but they never actually accomplish? My husband, Dick Sparks and the proper officials take care of the problems as they come up the best they can, without a lot of political publicity.

They are not looking for praise. They just take care of the business the people elected them to do.

If Mr. Thoeke is so enthused about having monthly meetings, why doesn't he attend the township meetings? The last time he was at one was early in the winter, when he came to inquire about some road bills he was particularly interested in.

Mr. Thoeke criticizes the new highway building as being a shed, when it is completed, that is when he will give you another one of his excuses.

I am sure it will be a building the people will be proud of, and will serve the highway department very adequately.

Education superintendent post sought by two candidates

Democratic voters choosing a nominee for the office of superintendent of the Madison County Educational Service Region are fortunate in that both candidates are highly qualified for the office, each having more than 20 years of experience in school work, covering many levels and types of experience.

Each has been a teacher, principal and administrator.

Harold E. "Gene" Briggs became assistant county superintendent seven and a half years ago and advanced to the top position when Supt. Wilbur Trimpe left in November 1973 to become Lewis and Clark College president.

Vasil Eftimoff, at one time a member of the Granite City Board of Education, is director of pupil personnel services and an administrative assistant to the superintendent of Granite City schools.

We would feel confident with either individual in the county office. We lean slightly toward Eftimoff in the belief that he would be unusually active in encouraging innovative improvements in school systems within the county.

Three Madison County offices being sought by 11 aspirants

In a three-way Democratic primary race for county clerk, we consider Chief Deputy Clerk Evelyn Bowles uniquely qualified to replace veteran Clerk Eulalia Hotz, who is retiring.

Miss Bowles has been chief deputy for 22 years; she has worked in all areas of responsibility in the office, with special emphasis on election matters, voter registration and delinquent taxes.

Granite City Assessor Von Dee Cruse has shown ability to perform well in several offices and we believe he could master the complex clerical duties.

We favor Miss Bowles in the primary because of her already thorough understanding of the responsibilities associated with this large and important office.

The Democratic primary for the office of county treasurer pairs the incumbent, George Musso, Edwardsville, and Michael S. "Mick" Henkhaus, Mitchell, who has nine years of experience and is a member of the circuit clerk's staff.

Elected to four successive four-year terms as a Madison County official, Musso is familiar with the duties and has raised the efficiency of the office. We favor him in the primary.

John Maeras of Madison, sheriff of Madison County and a former county treasurer, is recommended in the Democratic primary election over two other eligible candidates. The others running in that party do not appear to have adequate law enforcement administrative experience.

Many procedural improvements have been carried out during Maeras' first four-year term. A critical report released last week actually applies to a previous sheriff and fails to recognize later progressive steps.

Law enforcement problems remain, many of them related to the county's financial ability. The performance of special deputies serving in densely-populated unincorporated areas perhaps can be improved further through increased training and a clearer definition of their authority and its limits.

Three Republicans are unopposed for nominations to three Madison County elective offices in Tuesday's primary balloting—Robert J. Urban for sheriff, Mrs. Carol Frederick for county treasurer and Donald W. Emde for county clerk.

Since they are unopposed, we will withhold detailed comment on their qualifications until a time closer to the general election. But all three have considerable training and experience and seem capable of waging substantive campaigns.

Opposition for three County Board posts among Democrats

Madison County Board terms expiring this year include five local districts. Reflecting Democratic dominance in the Quad-Cities, there are ten candidates for that party's nominations, while there were no Republican filings for the primary election.

Two local incumbents are unopposed in the primary—William B. Webb in District 19 and Nelson Hagnauer in District 20. Hagnauer is chairman of the County Board.

Rivals in District 16 are the incumbent, Albert E. Doerr of South Roxana; Chouteau Township Supervisor Walter Sparks, who served on the County Board until mid-1972; and William Thoeke, Mitchell area motel owner.

Supervisor Sparks has the most experience and could serve effectively if returned to the board; he is chairman of the Four-Township Sewer Committee. Thoeke also has been active in seeking sewer and highway improvements and would be a diligent board member.

District 21 contenders are the incumbent, Carl V. Buehler, a barber, and Daniel J. Partney, an officer in a sheet metal firm.

Buehler is chairman of the Environmental Control Committee of the board and has been active in expanding county services. He has been assailed for accepting frequent meeting pay, but it should be noted that board duties also include many tasks for which there is no remuneration. Partney, if elected, would serve with vigor and would seek nighttime board meetings.

District 26 candidates are the incumbent, Louis Whitsell, who also is Nameoki Township supervisor; Edgar Patrick, former Nameoki township clerk; and Bill Gibbons, a steel employee.

Whitsell has been a hard-working board member and has risen to the chairmanship of the Education and Recreation Committee while also serving on the Executive, Land Use and Four-Township Sewer Committees. As he points out, county legislators who also serve in township offices are directly aware of many of the needs and wishes of the public.

In concentrating his efforts on County Board duties, Patrick also could serve ably and promises to seek reduced spending and improved services.

Allegations of differing figures on past governmental pay have become a part of the District 26 campaign. The differences appear to involve varying periods of time and differing calendar and fiscal years.

Mayor cites leadership by Rep. Calvo

As part of my responsibility as mayor, it is necessary that I stay in contact with and have the cooperation of our state representatives.

Rep. Horace Calvo of Granite City, a candidate for re-election as a state representative, has exhibited the highest qualities of leadership and cooperation with our local officials on the many local problems that are affected by state action, some of which have been:

- (1) A railroad overpass linking the Lincoln Place area and northwest Granite City with downtown Granite City.
- (2) Sponsoring legislation to reduce senior citizen taxes.
- (3) Sponsoring legislation splitting the Levee District between Madison County and St. Clair County.
- (4) The continuation of Route 151 from Niedringhaus Avenue to the McKinley Bridge.

Working on the solution of various drainage problems, such as the Doherty Slough problem.

Rep. Calvo's experience and seniority in the House of Representatives in Springfield uniquely qualify him for retention in this office.

With the large number of candidates for this position in the Democratic primary, it is of the utmost importance that the people of Granite City vote for the polls and vote for Horace Calvo for re-election, and thereby insure the people of our town that our local problems will be properly handled in the State Capitol.

I therefore urge the public to vote for Horace Calvo on Tuesday, March 19, for re-election as state representative.

TV expanding its services to the deaf

To the Editor:

We would like to thank the people of Granite City who have responded to our request at PTA meetings around town to write to St. Louis TV stations requesting more services for the deaf have begun.

As a result of the many letters, we have been contacted by three channels, and services for the deaf have begun.

The most important accomplishment is the promise by Channels 2 and 4 that all emergency and weather bulletins originating at the station—not network bulletins—will be in caption or crawl across the screen so that deaf are aware of the type of emergency or weather bulletin, and can take proper precaution.

This will also alleviate their frustrations of not knowing.

Channel Four has begun a five-minute news program for the deaf on Saturdays on the "St. Louis Illustrated" program as a result of our efforts.

Channel 2 will feature the deaf on "Expresso" at 1 p.m. Sunday, March 17. Leon Hudson of Granite City will appear on that program briefly.

Channel Nine is considering some captioned news programs and captioned films. The deaf of our area (more than 4,000) are very excited about this.

Illinois School for the Deaf, Jacksonville, also receives Channels 2 and 9 by cable, and the school is excited about the possibilities.

Again, we are asking those who have not written to the TV stations to help us. The TV stations to write to: Channel 2, Program Director, 5915 Berthold, St. Louis, Mo.; Channel 4, Program Director, 100 Memorial Drive, St. Louis, Mo.; and Mr. Barnes, Program Director, Channel 9, 6996 Brook Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Let's express thanks for the interest that they have shown, and urge more programming geared to the deaf. We, sincerely thank you, Granite City, for your interest.

Wilkins backs Eftimoff for school post

My personal participation in local, county and state educational leadership is a part of my life for which I am most proud.

I am endorsing one man from those who follow after me, in the March 19 primary election, as a means by which I can still seek to insure the quality education of our young people.

During the primary, the Democratic voters of Madison County will have the opportunity to choose Vasil Eftimoff as Democratic candidate for superintendent of the Educational Service Region, Madison County.

I want very much to go on record as giving Vasil Eftimoff my most hearty and committed endorsement.

Madison County's educational system will greatly benefit if we obtain his leadership in this most important position.

I do not only endorse him as the best person for this responsibility, but I have promised to support him in the primary election in which I might contribute afterward should we of Madison County be fortunate enough to find him as our next county superintendent of education.

DR. GEORGE T. WILKINS SR.

Calvo helpful in sponsoring legislation

To the Editor:

I have been representing the public in the legislature of this state as a representative and senator.

In this capacity, I have had occasion to work closely with Horace Calvo, the incumbent state representative.

I have found him to be interested in the concerns and desires of the citizens in our district.

He has been the House sponsor of a large amount of legislation and has worked hard to obtain its passage. Likewise, I have worked hard as Senate sponsor for his legislation.

I strongly urge that people vote to re-elect Horace Calvo so that he can continue our team effort for the benefit of the citizens of this district.

SAM YADALABENE
State Senator, District 16, 56th District

Single votes for Rep. Calvo urged

To the Editor:

We're only a few days away from the primary election and the total apathy is deafening. Granite City has an incumbent state representative, Horace Calvo, running for re-election.

Mr. Calvo has done a splendid job for the citizens of Granite City as well as the rest of the 56th District.

But if there isn't more enthusiasm generated, or more effort to get out the vote, Granite City could lose its experienced local voice in the State Capitol.

While candidates in Alton are pushing for "single shot" votes + one candidate with Gov. Walters' area boys' help — people in Granite City are sitting back and doing nothing to retain their experienced voice in the Illinois General Assembly.

While another candidate from Granite City takes shots at Calvo in the Edwardsville paper with the quiet approval of the endorsed candidate from Edwardsville, people in Granite City sit on their hands instead of writing or voicing their opinions on retaining experience as their representative.

We have a candidate here, Calvo who is endorsed by labor and civic organizations, who has been good for the people of Granite City as well as the rest of the 56th District, but who is being smeared and maligned in fine areas of the district.

We have an experienced man here running for re-election who very well has because of the "single-shot" tactics of the workers and supporters of the other 10 candidates for his State seat.

We need to wake up and find out what's going on. While I personally dislike the tactic, it's the only way I can counteract others' actions. I shall "single-shot" my vote for Horace Calvo, and I hope everyone else in Granite City does likewise. So be it.

Calvo deserves re-election on the basis of his record of good service to the people of his district, especially Granite City. Let's get out the vote for Horace Calvo. We need Horace Calvo for our state representative.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Page 22 Thurs., Mar. 14, 1974
13th 'Winter Carnival' Tuesday

For the 13th year participants in the Granite City Park District's fall-winter program will present a "Winter Carnival" showcase event in Memorial Gymnasium at Granite City High School South.

A capacity audience is expected to view the show, scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the South High gym. Close to 500 youngsters will be featured in various segments of the park district's program.

Among the groups to be spotlighted will be pre-schoolers, baton twirlers, tap and ballet dancers, beginner wrestlers and beginner, intermediate and advanced level gymnasts.

Nike Jesse, district director of recreation, said each participant has been allocated eight tickets for his or her family and friends.

CULTURAL PROGRAMS AT BETHEL M.E. CHURCH

The Bethel African M. E. Church, 1035 Market St., Venice, will present its 14th "Annual Cultural Feast," "Faith-Love-and-Togetherness" on Sunday, March 17 and 24 from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m., at the church dining room.

The Rev. E. B. Seals is pastor of the church. Mrs. Lolita Jenkins is chairman of the Sunday programs and Mrs. Beulah Williams is co-chairman.

New classifications: Young-old, old-old

Some call them the "aged." They are also dubbed "senior citizens" or just "senior."

Then there's the "older American." Now we have the "young-old" and the "old-old."

But they all mean the same thing: those citizens 55 years of age and older. There are 20 million of them across the country, with 2.2 million living in Illinois.

Legislation creating the new state Department on Aging calls them "aged" or "senior citizen."

"(It) means a person 55 years of age or older, or a person nearing the age of 55 for whom opportunities for employment and participation in community life are unavailable or severely limited and who, as a result thereof, has difficulty in maintaining self-sufficiency and contributing to the life of the community."

But many older citizens are not happy with these labels.

Enter Bernice L. Neugarten with an alternative.

A professor at the University of Chicago, she has replaced the terms with two new ones: the young-old, those people aged 55-

75; and the old-old, those 75 and over.

She points out that age 55 is becoming a meaningful lower age limit for the young-old because of the lowering age of retirement.

"Many workers are now voluntarily retiring just as soon as they think they can live comfortably upon their retirement incomes as, for example, those auto workers who exercise their retirement option at 55," she has told the American Association for the Advancement of Sciences.

She lists these characteristics of the young-old:

—They constitute more than 15 per cent of the total population as compared to the old-old, who represent four per cent.

—About 80 per cent of the young-old men and 50 per cent of the women were married as of 1970 and living with their spouses. Most live in their own household as opposed to with children or other relatives.

A large proportion of young-old have a living parent who contributes to the young-old's sense of youthfulness.

—Better educated than the old-old, a young-old in the near future will be in an even less disadvantaged position in comparison with the young.

—Members of this group are highly active politically as compared with other age groups. In the electorate as a whole, they are disproportionately influential.

—And what about the young-old of the future? The group now in the 30s and 40s—people who have been politically and culturally active as well as involved in the civil rights and women's liberation movements?

—These experiences and these attitudes combined with their higher education and occupational levels will probably lead them to exert a potent influence upon government," the expert on aging explains.

—Compared with the young-old of the 1970s, the young-old of the 1990s are likely to wield their influence through direct political action, and to make demands of both the public and private sectors to bring the benefit structure in line with their raised expectations."

Two held in abduction

Two men were being held today in the Madison County Jail in lieu of $30,000 bond each on charges stemming from the armed robbery and abduction of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tipward, 5645 Maryville Road, Saturday night.

Ronald Woods, 25, of 629 Ashland Ave., Mitchell, surrendered to Madison County sheriff's deputies Monday. He was charged with armed robbery, unlawful restraint and theft.

Samuel Niederberg dies
Samuel Niederberg, 2505 Cleveland Blvd., was found dead in his home at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday by Granite City police.

Officers were told the elderly man had not been seen for about two days and neighbors asked that police investigate. When they arrived they found all windows and doors locked.

The television was heard inside the home, so a locksmith was called, and opened a porch window through which Madison County Deputy Coroner Leonard Davis entered and opened the front door for police.

CRUSE
means of raising campaign funds.

Cruse said he has sought to campaign primarily on his qualifications.

He said the County Democratic Central Committee and the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education both endorsed him on merit after also considering Miss Bowles.

He said present registration has been inconvenient and set up in a way to aid the political power of the incumbent clerical staff.

He advocated authorizing voter registration and license services at city and township buildings and assuring that fair and responsible procedures are followed by such assistants through out the county.

Cruse said there have been instances in which lack of cooperation and differing viewpoints about county legislation have handicapped the County Board in its dealings with the clerk's office and in its effectiveness.

He charged that there are no Quack-Citizens on the present clerical staff.

Republicans and Democrats alike would benefit from making voter registration more available to the public Cruse contended.

While he would safeguard the rights of all parties and independents, he said he advocates increased coordination among Democratic and other officials to aid in improving the efficiency of Madison County and securing all appropriate state and federal funds.

"I would operate a highly efficient office and, if important, I would create real interest, concern warmth and pleasure in serving the public through the county clerk's office."

Along with his verbal remarks, the candidate has submitted a prepared statement. Cruse commented today, "The office of county clerk is one of the offices in county government that should be the closest and most accessible to

News notes

Arab oil ministers are said to have agreed in Tripoli yesterday to end their U.S. embargo for two months and to restore full oil production.

The East St. Louis Gateway Coordinating Council board voted Wednesday to delay its proposal for a rapid transit corridor proposal until its staff can study all forms of transportation in seven corridor areas.

St. Louis city officials told the Bi-State Transit System yesterday they will force it to end service in Illinois after June 30 unless this state or local municipalities provide a subsidy similar to those by St. Louis City and County.

The Illinois Capital Development Board this week recommended a $128,282 grant to Granite City schools to aid in meeting some of their construction bond costs since 1969.

St. Louis County Supervisor Lawrence Rood, chairman of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, said Tuesday he will not seek reelection as supervisor.

A hearing on Granite City State college missions has been set for 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 20, at the SIUE University Center Mississippi Room.

Miss Sandy Batey, a GCHS North sophomore, will be one of the five members of the queen's court at tomorrow night's 24th annual Junior Achievement coronation ball at Stouffer's.

Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis has named C. R. Hunt assistant to president J. B. Buffalo effective March 16, with transportation and maintenance responsibility, including Madison Yard modernization.

The steel shortage will delay actual start of construction on the new Alton locks and dam until fall.

State Rep. Leland Kennedy, who is retiring, this week endorsed Rep. Horace Calvo, D-Granite City, for reelection.

Fourteen of the 15 school superintendents in Madison County have voiced support for Harold E. "Gene" Briggs for election as superintendent of the County Educational Service Region.

The citizens of our county clerk handles voter registration, marriage licenses, death certificates and similar personal documents.

"If I am elected, I will do everything possible to make voter registration easier by the use of mobile registration, and by making the city clerks of the various municipalities local registrars so that the trip to Edwardsville to register will be unnecessary, as it should be."

"Further, I will make it possible to register on Saturdays as well as at the close of the working day—and will cooperate with precinct committeemen to bring registration into the precincts, which is something that has not been done to this time."

"Further, I would have the city clerks able to issue marriage licenses on the local level thereby saving people the unnecessary trip to Edwardsville."

"I would endeavor to make the office of county clerk as open as accessible for the services it provides to as many people as many people as possible."

"In my over 20 years of experience in government, it has always been my position that the only reason to be elected to any office is to want to serve the people."

"I would continue this tradition of service in the county clerk's office and feel that my experience in government would aid many in seeking to implement the changes that I have discussed."

"Since the office of county clerk is one of the major employers of the county, I feel that the employees in the office should be both qualified and competent to do their jobs and so reflect the population distribution of the county."

"Further, the technical advances that have come to data processing have been great in the last few years. With the full utilization of the equipment, many more services could be provided at no increase in cost."

"I propose to use this equipment and utilize it to its fullest capacity."

"Further, being a homeowner and parent, I am well aware of the tax burden on the ordinary citizen, and would attempt to reduce the office at the greatest possible economy without sacrificing quality." Cruse concluded.

John Giese dies at home

John J. Giese, 66, of 1720 Venice Ave., ill for six years, died at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Born in Leavenworth, Kans., he resided in Granite City for many years. He was a retired custodian at Coolidge Junior High School where he worked 17 years.

Giese was a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Anna Giese; one son, James Franklin Giese; three brothers, Francis and Charles Giese, both of Leavenworth, Kan., and Thomas Giese of Baltimore, Md., two sisters, Mrs. Pete (Arlene) Jones of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Ewald (Lillian) Ruebhausen of Granite City; his mother, Mrs. Mary Giese of Leavenworth, Kan., and grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

similar projects in other parts of the area. The cost of the area, including cost of right-of-way, would range between $3 and $4 million, Kusior said.

Schuler said he agreed that the city would assume the cost of the project, including the motor fuel tax funds. Such a study would cost from $6,000 to $10,000, the mayor added.

Calvo said he would work closely with the city on the overpass project as well as any street improvement projects to be planned later. He said he would sponsor any legislation to be introduced in connection with the overpass project.

Kusior said that representatives of the communities in the East St. Louis Urbanized area have been invited to a meeting on March 29 at which details of the new HAUS program will be explained by highway department engineers.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the City Hall at Collinsville.

All projects for which grants are sought under the new program first must clear through the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, Kusior explained.

Gibbons fights non-union signs

A complaint that opponents in County Board District 26 have been displaying signs that do not bear union labels has been made to the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, but he has not received a report of action in the matter, Bill Gibbons, a candidate, said today.

"I am urging all union members to display non-union signs," the candidate said. Gibbons also said his wife received an obscene phone call concerning the election, but that the matter has been reported to Pontoon Beach police.

"We have done nothing to warrant this except that I am an independent candidate running against political machines," Gibbons said.

Mrs. Mary Boyd succumbs

Mrs. Mary Genevieve Boyd, 96 of 39 Villa Drive, became ill at home and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she was pronounced dead upon arrival at 5:45 p.m. Wednesday.

She was born in Marissa, Ill., and lived in Granite City 14 years. Mrs. Boyd was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints (Mormon) and a veteran of World War II. She served two years with the U.S. Army as a Medical Technician.

Survivors include her husband, Edward Boyd; four daughters, Mrs. Sharon Anderson of Jacksonville, Ill., Mrs. Jim (Suzanne) Moore of Shiloh, Ill., Miss Sherine Boyd and Miss Shelly Boyd, both of Granite City; one brother, Ray Sharp Jr.; Mitchell; two sisters, Mrs. Ruby Rayburn, Osgood Beach, Mo., and Mrs. Joann Brown, Milledgeville, Ill., and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Alpha Xi hosts progressive dinner

A progressive dinner for members of Alpha Xi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority took place last week, with the appetizers and a salad course served in the home of Mrs. Barbara Orris.

Mrs. Carol Grimm prepared the main course, followed with dessert served at the home of Mrs. Marilyn Schooley.

During the evening, Mrs. Orris and Mrs. Mary Modica were presented with five-year membership pins and Mrs. Schooley was reinstated as a member.

Members discussed making crackle plaques and planned to start the initial work at the March meeting.

Games were played with prizes awarded to the winners. Others present were Mesdames Betty Colligan, Joyce Albers, Pat Scherrills, Mary Firties, Gerry Mendez and Miss Betty Bueatch.

Charles G. Taylor, 15, Receives Eagle badge

Charles G. Taylor, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, 7 Fontainebleau Drive, received the Eagle Scout badge at a court of honor last week in the Naticki United Methodist Church.

Young Charles began his Scouting career as a Cub Scout in Pack 58. Mrs. Taylor served as the den mother and John Hensley was the Cubmaster.

At age of 10, Chuck became a Webelos Scout under the leadership of Donald Gardner. As a Webelos, he earned 11 activity badges and the Arrow of Light, the highest award a boy may earn in the Cub Scout program.

He joined Boy Scouting at age 11 and earned Tenderfoot, Second Class and First Class ranks while a member of Troop 98.

A charter member of Troop 5, he met the requirements for Star, Life and Eagle rank.

In 1971 he was awarded the God and Country award.

Charles is an active member of the Cahokia Lodge, Order of the Arrow. He attended Junior Leader training at Camp Sunnen during the summer of 1973.

In 1972 he attended Junior Leader Instructor training at Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico. Charles also attended the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Farragut, Idaho, last summer.

A sophomore at Granite City High School North, he was on the junior varsity football team and JV wrestling squad.

His father is Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 5.

Mrs. Taylor received the Silver Fawn, highest award a council can bestow on a woman. She currently is serving as a member of the women's auxiliary.

Public regards GC schools as effective and somewhat strict

By GARY SCHNEIDER

A "no holds barred" evaluation of the Granite City public school system, including praise, criticism and suggestions concerning the district's programs, was presented to the Granite City Board of Education last week by the Community Advisory Council to the Unit District 5.

The school board, which was not to have granted final approval to the document until March 19, praised the work of the committee and gave its immediate approval to the document without recommending any changes except the date of approval which was specified in the Local District Educational Plan, the result of the committee's work since May 21, 1973.

The committee was formed from a cross section of the community and local service labor and education groups under guidelines suggested by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The guidelines called for public involvement in the planning and evaluation processes of school districts throughout the state.

Under the Illinois Program for Evaluation, Supervision and Recognition of Schools (termed the A-160 plan), local districts including Madison and Venice, established their citizen groups and charged them with creating district plans.

Ed Edwards, chairman of the Granite City Community Advisory Council, addressed the board of education Tuesday night.

Edwards said, "I would urge the board to continue to support this committee. The overall effect of this plan could last 10 years. It calls for continued citizen participation in review and planning and evaluation. I feel our committee has proven itself capable."

He suggested membership on the committee be reduced and encouraged the board to "use the committee as a springboard for public opinion. We can be used for specific tasks including getting the opinions of the public, and we will see you get that information," Edwards pledged.

Edwards and Owen E. Humphrey, curriculum coordinator for the district who helped prepare the educational plan and wrote most of the document, were praised by the board.

Board Treasurer L. Monroe Worthen, who was on the committee, commented, "Ed provided the leadership and the drive to get the job done. Owen served in a capacity that I think school students, parents and citizens gave most of the input toward the final product."

Board member A. L. "Pet" Metcalf, who also served on the committee, agreed, saying, "Ed's leadership was terrific and Owen was his right hand man. I feel they should be commended."

The board voted to give specific commendation to Edwards and Humphrey and to send letters of commendation to all active members of the committee. The board also voted to retain the committee to serve as advisors to the district.

The committee was asked to evaluate the district's performance in specific areas by sending detailed questionnaires to all active members of the committee. A total of 15,288 questionnaires were distributed and 7,116 were completed and returned to the committee.

The board voted to give a five-point scale with "1" being poor and "5" being excellent. Results then were tabulated and weighted mean averages assigned to each question's response.

These questionnaires rated the district's comprehensive instruction in physical fitness, health and safety as its most outstanding program with an average of 4.21 on the five point scale.

Ranked second best was the board of education's ability to fulfill the Constitutional laws of the country and state, rated 4.175 by those questioned. The third best response was in answer to the question, "Are school experiences available to enable the student to appreciate and/or participate in intellectual and aesthetic areas, such as art, music, speech and drama?" The average response was 4.172.

The district took a slap on the wrist with responses to questions concerning understanding of students (3.186), attitudes concerning discrimination (3.200), freedom of students to express their beliefs and ideals without fear of ridicule or punishment (3.261), teaching the proper roles of the parent and the child in family living (3.286) and acquiring an attitude that fosters understanding and communication with others (3.356).

The document defined goals for student improvement, system improvements, establishing policies regarding the rights and responsibilities of individuals, improving the instructional program, continuing all support services including health, food and transportation, and called for specific improvements in the areas of staff development and in-service training.

The objectives call for maintaining programs which received favorable responses from the survey and re-evaluating and improving programs which received unfavorable responses.

The plan offers hundreds of suggestions for improvements, most with specific dates by which each phase of the suggestion should be completed.

B. J. Davis, district superintendent, told the board, "We have reviewed the deadlines from an administrative standpoint and we feel they are acceptable deadlines."

Edwards said he felt interested citizens should have an opportunity to study the 66-page

Local District Educational Plan and said copies will be distributed to several areas where they should be kept available for public inspection. Areas where copies will be available after the final drafts have been completed will include all schools, the school board office, the Granite City Public Library, the Office of the Superintendent, Educational Service Region, Edwardsville, and the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Springfield.

Copies also will be distributed to school board members and members of the Community Advisory Council.

The committee was formed by the school board Jan. 10, 1973. Membership was appointed from 15 organizations. Members were from the Tri-City Central Trades Council, the Granite City Rotary, Optimist and Kiwanis clubs, the Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, American Federation of Teachers Local 743.

The Business and Professional Women's Club, the student councils of GCES North and South, the board of education, the GC Elementary and Secondary principals association, the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, the GC Education Association and the Quad-Cities Health Action Committee.

DO'S AND DON'TS for efficient secretaries were demonstrated in a skit presented by these members of the Future Secretaries Association in a meeting at Granite City High School South. From left, Phyllis Adams, narrator; Dorothy Miller, trait customer; Mary Jane Strong, "dumb" secretary, and Sheila Browning, the boss.

Future secretaries learn about do's and don'ts

"The Do's and Don'ts for the Beginning Secretary" was the title of a skit presented by Sheila Browning, Mary Jane Strong, Dorothy Miller and Phyllis Adams at the monthly meeting of the Granite City High School Future Secretaries Association at GCHS-South cafeteria.

Different situations involving opening mail, taking dictation, greeting customers, and handling telephone conversations were portrayed. First the situation was presented the incorrect way, and the audience was asked to name the various duties that were not handled correctly. This was followed by the proper way to handle the same situation.

The meeting was presided over by President Sharon Mang, who called on faculty advisor Lucille Aramowicz for a report. Miss Aramowicz announced that ballots would be mailed to each FSA member prior to the April meeting, so she may vote for the Business Teacher of the Year.

Two teachers will be selected this year, one from each school, and the winning teachers will be the guests of the FSA Chapter at the monthly dinner meeting of the Tri-Cities Chapter, National Secretaries Association, when the FSA members join with NSA members for a banquet, on Thursday, May 2.

On Saturday afternoon, March 30, a chartered bus will pick up NSA and FSA members and take them to St. Louis for a taping of the Regis Philbin television show at KMXX. Fifty individuals will participate in the event. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Charlie Yuvovic, NSA Advisor, on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Members were reminded to turn in all points to the president to be in the running for the Miss FSA Award to be presented at the banquet in May, in the form of a check for $50 from the Tri-Cities Chapter. This check represents a scholarship award, and is to help defray further educational

B. E. HOHLT, INC.
1837 MADISON AVE. GRANITE CITY, ILL.

Mean Mary Jean, Superstar of your Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer Team, says:
D.G. Plue of St. Joseph, Michigan got almost 19 MPG in his Chrysler ... by slowing down.
Pretty neat ... know what I mean?
That Mr. Plue, of St. Joseph, Michigan, can get that kind of mileage from his '73 Chrysler Newport with a standard V-8 engine. Here's how he says he does it.
By concentrating on getting good mileage on the highway ... and not going over 50 mph ... he was able to get almost 19 miles to a gallon. So by keeping his speed down ... he saves fuel and saves money. He saves his tires, too. Now that's real savings. Know what I mean?
AUTHORIZED DEALER CHRYSLER PLYMOUTH
'74 Chrysler Newport
Newport offers styling, comfort and convenience at a price that's affordable. Also standard on Newport is an electronic ignition that virtually eliminates ignition tune-ups, an engine that runs on regular fuel, and a whole lot more.

In loving memory of GEORGE FLACH, March 16, 1952. FLACH FAMILY 30 3 14

In loving memory of CLARENCE "TUFFY" PHELPS who passed away March 23, 1973. We do not need a special day. To bring you to our minds. For the days we do not think of. Are very hard to find. Sadly missed by— WIFE GLADYS, DAUGHTERS, STEPHENS and GRANDCHILDREN 30 3 14

In loving memory of EUNICE PORTER, March 15, 1971. In our home she is fondly remembered. Sweet memories cling to her name. Those who loved her in life sincerely. Still love her in death just the same. Sadly missed by— MOTHER, DAD, SISTERS, BROTHERS, CHILDREN and FRIENDS 30 3 14

In loving memory of MRS. ELLA WHITT. Please know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. I hear a voice from heaven saying unto me write from henceforth, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, even so, saith the Spirit for they rest from their labor. Each of us be comforted by Sister Whitt's life. She was a testimony that it can be done. As far as the world is concerned she was still living. When we stand before God in judgement we shall see her take her proper place. May God help us imitate her. W. C. WHITT 30 3 14

South wrestlers almost had 2nd place in state — Schmitt

"What a difference a day makes"—a line from a familiar song.

But to the Warrior wrestlers of Granite City High School South at the state finals in Champaign during the weekend, that line should have been, "What a difference an escape makes." That was all that would have been needed to vault South into contention for a second-place team finish in the state tournament. Instead, the Warriors tied for seventh in the Class AA finals, still a highly respectable finish.

Eight South matmen squared off with opponents under the lights at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall, to go for their first state mat title since GCHS shared the honor in 1965 with Oak Lawn.

When the meet ended the following night, South again wound up in a tie, but this time for seventh place with Glenbrook North, each with 21½ team points.

"Of our three boys who placed in the meet," commented Warrior Coach Bill Schmitt, "Woody Halbrook in the 98-pound class came closest to moving up. An escape in the semifinals would have given him the match and advanced him to the finals, adding one team point for advancement and at least nine for second place in his class even if he lost the championship match.

"Since he was wrestling a rugged Oak Lawn boy who finished second in his class, a victory there would have eliminated that opponent, deprived Oak Lawn of his championship points and moved Oak Lawn down in the team standings as we took over second place," Schmitt voiced warm praise for Halbrook's efforts in the injury-plagued competition.

Halbrook had several near escapes in regulation time of the bout. The score was tied at 2-2 when the clock ran out. The opponents then dominated the overtime and won 10-4.

Halbrook, runnerup in his class at the South sectional, qualified for the state meet, posted a 14-2 decision in the first round over his Lane Tech foe, and downed his quarterfinal foe from East Moline 15-4 to advance to the semifinals, where he was defeated by the eventual champion.

Halbrook's chances for a third-place finish were eliminated in his first consolation match when he lost to Bensenville's Walter Dye by default. The Warrior was leading 4-0 but suffered a shoulder dislocation. He finished sixth in the state after forfeiting a fifth-place bout because of the injury.

Warrior John Niebur took fifth at 119 pounds with victories in the consolation bracket after losing 7-2 to Oak Lawn's Terry Mulren in the first round.

"John was a victim of an unfortunate pairing," commented Schmitt. "He was expecting to face a sectional runnerup, but instead was paired, in a sense, with a sectional champion.

Niebur's foe was winning his sectional bout 10-2 but was disqualified from the championship for unnecessary roughness.

Undeclared going into the tournament, Niebur bounced

AWARD WINNING MATMEN—Warrior Coach Bill Schmitt honors 155 pound class champion Dave Powell of St. Charles, Ill., with a first place medal as other wrestlers who placed in this month's IHSA State Wrestling Finals await their turns, including Brian Wilson of GCHS South, far left. back from the loss to capture three of four consolation matches, 5-0, 11-5 and 10-6. His consolation loss, which kept him from entering a third-place bout, was by a 3-4 decision.

Brian Wilson, South sectional champion at 155 pounds, posted a 11-0 first-round win at state but lost 11-0 in quarter-final action to his undefeated St. Charles opponent.

"Wilson performed well," said Schmitt. "He was beaten by a lad who was a state champion two years ago and runnerup last year."

"To advance to the third place bout, he had to win four matches, as many bouts as a champion would have to face."

Wilson captured his first three consolation bouts 9-5, 15-3 and 11-0 before losing 1-0 for third place to Fox Lake's Joe Kukla.

"The oddity of it all," added Schmitt, "is that all three fell victim to eventual class winners."

Jim Caschetta (105 pounds) lost 6-2 in his first match; Phil Lapinski (112) won 2-1 over a sectional winner and then lost 5-4 and 2-1; Don Heath (126) beat a previously undefeated wrestler 6-4, before losing 11-2 and 13-0; Don Hasty (138) lost 15-2 and 6-2, and Dave Rushing (145) lost 11-1.

Explaining why some of South's wrestlers were allowed second chance consolation bouts and some were not, Schmitt said, "To qualify for consolation rounds, a wrestler who defeated another must win his next match."

"If the winning matman should lose his next bout, the boy previously he beat is automatically eliminated."

GCHS North's only representative at Champaign, 112-pound Rudy Pyle, captured his first bout with an 8-3 decision over his Orland Park foe. He next lost 2-0 in the quarterfinals.

Pyle was eliminated when he lost 4-2 in his initial consolation bout, but earned a team point for the Steelers.

South had grabbed the tourney lead with five points after the first round Friday. Rich Central, the state champion, was then second with 4½.

At the end of first day of competition, South had fallen to a second place tie with Franklin Park, each with 9½ points.

We can't go on calling him The Illini Federal Elephant forever. It's awfully hard to say. Besides, it's not exactly personal.

To be a people, he has to have a name. Bill or Bob or Ted or something. That's where you come in.

Name him and you might be a winner.

What's in a name?

$1,000 "Trunk of Gold" Savings Certificate.

We want a first name or last name or both that looks just right, sounds just right and fits the Illini Elephant to a tee. That will be his official name from now on. And, if you're the official name, you'll be duly rewarded with a large supply of our primary product—Money! We'll award you a one-year, $1,000 Illini Federal Savings Certificate. At 6 1/2% interest, compounded daily, it'll be worth $1,067.15 when it matures.

4-$200 "Golden Peanut" Passbooks.

Four almost-best names will be chosen. And at Illini almost-best is good enough to win you a cache of cash. We'll stash $200 away in your name and present you with the passbook. You can add to or withdraw from it anytime. It will grow by leaps of 1/4% annually as long as it's on deposit.

25 Pachyderm Porters.

There'll be 30 finalists in all. Besides the five who will be in the money, 25 will be on the table. The elephant table, that is. Perky pachyderms hand-woven of natural rattan. They're perfect for paring peanuts, drinks, ashtrays and generally brightening up any room or patio.

Name him now.

The Whatchamacallhim contest ends midnight Saturday, March 30, 1974. So fill out the entry blank below and bring it or mail it to any Illini Federal office right away. If you're a real name-dropper, enter a bunch of names. Just pick up extra entry blanks at Illini or copy all the information onto a 3" x 5" piece of paper. Then sit back and wait.

If you're a winner, you'll hear the elephant trumpeting all the way to your house.

Ask the Governor

Q. I am a nurse in a Chicago hospital and have heard many AFDC people complain that the new flat grant assistance program will not cover their medical expenses. How does the flat grant differ from the old assistance plan? I.B. Chicago.

A. In Illinois the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program is administered by the Department of Public Aid to families without sufficient income because of illness, unemployment or absence of parents.

The state department distributes both the federal and state funds in the form of food stamps, payment of medical bills and monthly cash payments.

On Oct. 1, 1973, the department initiated a new system to determine the monthly cash payments—called the "modified flat grant" or "Consolidated Standard Plan." It does not alter the payment of medical bills or the distribution of food stamps.

The plan simplified the number of variables determining monthly payments and reduced the number of special allowances from 90 to 15. Instead of the biggest grants going to families with the most allowances, the dollars were divided among the assistance families according to family size, the presence of an adult and housing costs in the area.

The new plan has provided additional assistance to 79 percent of the welfare families, as well as making distribution more equitable. Three-fourths of the families with increased aid gained from $25 through $100 per month. Of those families whose aid was reduced, 74 percent were cut less than $25 a month.

Special allowances which were continued include: initial employment expenses, child care, transportation for child care and education, allowances for necessary household help, loss of income emergencies and emergency assistance for loss of home.

In addition, some medically related allowances such as prescription diet supplements, orthopedic shoes and prosthetic appliances, will be provided through the Medical Assistance program.

Administrative costs have been reduced because the caseworker no longer determines allowances each month. Under the new plan, recipients budget their own monthly checks, paying bills previously covered by allowances.

Illinois is only one of a dozen states that pays 100 percent of the daily living expenses to those on AFDC, as determined by the federal government.

GC trust employees attend institute

The Granite City Trust and Savings Bank was among banks who had the most students enrolled and most successful in various banking courses conducted by the St. Louis Chapter of the American Institute of Banking at St. Louis, according to word received this week by Ernest A. Karandjeff, president of the bank.

Of 17 students attending institute course, Scott Smith and Lois Miller received top honors in their respective classes.

Other students were Betty Barunika, Deloris Bean, Mollie Brewer, Debbie Chepley, Gerry Gulash, Nancy Hamilton, Bob Hildebrand, Linda Homes, Drew Karandjeff, Bill Kolkmeyer, Debbie Martin, Sally Mercer, Dale Parrish, Ruth Suggs and Sharon Young.

11-mile start seen as key to a 100-mile rapid transit network

The proposal for development of an 11-mile rapid transit line extending from East St. Louis to Clayton and serving as the first phase of an eventual 100-mile metropolitan rapid transit system has been endorsed by the board of the Regional Commerce and Growth Association.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Gateway Council staff's proposal that bus service in the metropolitan area be expanded and improved to provide a high level of service throughout the region.

"Business, labor and education leaders believe these proposals offer significant benefits to the two-state St. Louis community," Thayer said.

"Their endorsement reflects belief that construction of the initial 11-mile transit line would be worthwhile in itself and, even more important, is the right way to begin the development of a much larger transit system capable of meeting the entire region's future needs."

The 11-mile line is a major element in an updated regional transportation plan completed by East-West Gateway's staff in cooperation with federal, state and local-level agencies.

Approval by East-West Gateway is required before engineering can begin on development of the 11-mile line, expected to cost $301,000,000. Federal funds are available for up to 80 per cent of such projects.

It has been estimated that the initial rapid transit line could be in operation by the early 1980s.

The East-West Gateway staff elected a corridor from East St. Louis through the central business district to Clayton because it would provide direct access to the region's largest employment and activity centers, be readily accessible to an extensive system of feeder bus lines from all parts of the region, carry large numbers of passengers both during rush hours and off-peak hours, and be a foundation for later construction of a more extensive rapid transit system.

Preliminary engineering work would include selection of a specific transit route within the proposed central corridor, station site selection, and choice of transit vehicles and equipment.

"Our region's transportation needs cannot be served by reliance on new highways, expanded bus services, or a combination of the two," Thayer said.

"It is necessary to make a financially feasible beginning on rapid transit development if the St. Louis region is to compete effectively for available federal funds. This 11-mile first phase is the most promising possibility available to us."

"It is our best chance to make progress toward giving the region a complete rapid transit system and the economic activity that would result directly from construction of such a system. It is an opportunity we must seize as quickly as possible."

The transportation plan includes proposals for additional highway development and expanded bus service in the greater St. Louis area.

If carried to completion, it would give the region 86 miles of new rail-like rapid transit facilities supplemented by 14 miles of commuter rail service and served by an extensive network of feeder bus lines.

"This plan may or may not be the absolutely ideal way of improving our region's transportation, giving the region's people full mobility and choice, stimulating economic activity and improving the quality of life," Thayer said.

"Certainly, however, it is the best and most carefully prepared proposal that we have seen or will see in the years ahead. We must work together to make it a reality."

Some areas restricted for commercial fishing

All Illinois waters other than Lake Michigan and the Mississippi, Illinois and Wabash rivers have been designated as fish preserves by a Department of Conservation administrative order.

"An estimated 90 per cent of commercial fishing activities in the state are in these non-preserve waters," said Tony Dean, department director.

"Commercial fishing in other waters is restricted."

"Persons wishing to take fish by commercial devices from any other stream must obtain written permission from the Division of Fisheries."

The Division of Fisheries anticipates obtaining valuable information concerning additional localities and waters that are producing high protein foods, as well as the intensity of the commercial fishing activity on each of the various streams and rivers throughout the state.

Letters will be issued by the division granting permission to operate fishing gear, according to Bill Harb, superintendent.

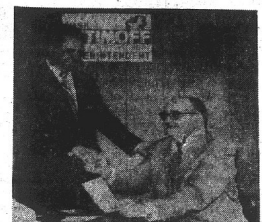

Fishermen will be required to have these letter permits in their possession while fishing.

However, the letters do not give anglers permission to fish on private waters. Permission must be secured from landowners over whose waters fishermen wish to operate.

Commercial fishermen wishing to fish restricted areas should send their name, locations (counties) they wish to fish, amount and type of gear they intend to use, where they fished last year and the type gear they used to: Department of Conservation, Division of Fisheries, 605 State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

Dr. George T. Wilkins, Former State Superintendent of Education, State of Illinois, Gives Committed Endorsement in Up-coming Election of Madison County Superintendent.

Dr. George T. Wilkins of Granite City has given his hearty endorsement for Vasil Eftimoff for superintendent, Education Service Region, Madison County Schools. Dr. Wilkins, who describes his personal track record in local, County, and state educational leadership "as a part of my life for which I am most proud," has stated, "The endorsement of one man from those who follow after me is a very rare but precious means by which I can still seek to insure the quality education of our young people."

"During the primary election on March 19th, the Democratic voters of Madison County will have the opportunity to elect Vasil Eftimoff as Democratic candidate for Superintendent, Education Service Region, Madison County."

"I want very much to go on record," Wilkins said, "as giving Vasil Eftimoff my most hearty and committed endorsement. Madison County's educational system will greatly benefit if we obtain his leadership in this most important position."

Dr. Wilkins added, "I am not only wishing to endorse him as the best person for this responsibility, but I have promised Vasil any help and assistance which I might contribute should we of Madison County be fortunate enough to find him our next County Superintendent of Education."

State pondering 3 rival tax relief programs

Tax relief is a topic up in the air in nearly every state these days, and Illinois has been hit with three proposals on the subject.

The latest proposal has come from Gov. Daniel Walker.

It was passed in the 77,000,000 budget for fiscal 1975 which he has presented to the General Assembly. The lawmakers really won't get to work on it until April because they are now home campaigning for the March 19 primary election.

This is an election year, and passing of tax relief legislation would make a good plank for the November general election campaign. Maybe the taxpayers can take some comfort in this fact, although adoption of a tax cut is still far from certain.

Walker said that through the reallocation of funds and changing of priorities, there would be enough money for "modest tax relief" program.

The governor's proposal first seeks to eliminate the state sales tax on drugs and medicine.

Walker would also extend the so-called elderly citizen "circuit breaker" law to persons at 60 years of age and over. Now the law applies only to those 65 and older.

Under the "circuit breaker" law, the state's senior citizens receive a rebate of taxes or rent paid. However, the rebate is calculated through an extended formula.

The governor told the lawmakers his proposed "modest tax relief" plan would cost the state $65 million.

House Speaker Rep. W. Robert Blair, R-Park Forest, was the first to unveil a tax relief plan. He said his plan will be pushed in the House this spring by Republicans.

Blair's plan calls for a rollback of two per cent of the current five per cent public utilities tax on residential users.

Under the present law, the public utilities tax is set at five per cent on residential users. The utility companies are allowed to pass along two per cent to the customers. Blair's proposal calls for complete elimination of the two per cent.

Regarding the "circuit breaker," Blair wants to extend the program to all homeowners and renters with a family income of less than $10,000; persons falling in that income bracket could apply for a prorated refund.

A third portion of the tax relief plan calls for a statewide petition drive for a public referendum on the question of an immediate property tax freeze.

To get such a plan on the ballot would take about 650,000 signatures on petitions. The election actually would be an advisory referendum to the General Assembly.

If it got on the November ballot and gained voters' approval, the General Assembly then would consider passing legislation establishing a freeze on property taxes at current levels.

Blair estimates the GOP plan would cost $41 million. The third tax relief package has been presented by House Minority Leader Rep. Clyde Lee Choate, D-Anna.

Choate, who estimates his package would cost some $45 million, has a three-pronged proposal. The three elements call for:

— Passage of a constitutional amendment which would replace the current 6-10-5 corporate-to-individual income tax ratio with a provision to limit the individual rate to not more than half of that on corporations.

— An increase in the individual income tax exemption from $1,000 to $1,500.

— An increase in the corporate income tax from four per cent to five per cent to partially replace state revenue lost due to the planned increased individual exemption.

These are the first three plans. Undoubtedly when lawmakers return on April 4, more will hit the legislative grid mill.

Perhaps in their zeal to do something for the taxpayers, the legislators may come up with something by the end of June.

Project could recycle all of solid waste in region

Union Electric Co. is proceeding with plans for development of a solid waste utilization system capable of handling essentially all of the solid waste generated in the metropolitan St. Louis region.

President Charles J. Dougherty said the system, to be built, owned, and operated by the utility without governmental subsidy, "will provide a long-term, economically self-supporting solution to the metropolitan area's solid waste disposal problems."

The company hopes to have the system in full operation by mid-1977.

The decision follows the company's evaluation of the pioneering and experimental prototype system in operation since April 1972. That experiment was a joint venture of the company, the City of St. Louis and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

He said many problems have been encountered during the experiment, but "engineering ingenuity has met all the challenges."

"The experimental operation and its development pointed up the necessity that Union Electric maintain a high degree of control over all material fired into its boilers," said Dougherty.

"This requirement and the belief that the system should operate without governmental subsidy resulted in the decision to put the solid waste utilization system on the broad scope we are announcing."

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Page 38 Thurs. Mar. 14, 1974

Union Electric will establish and operate five to seven strategically located collection-transfer centers capable of handling 2.5 to 3 million tons of waste annually.

Refuse will be received from private and public haulers at these centers and transferred to closed containers for rail shipment to processing facilities at the company's Meramec and Labadie power plants.

The combustible wastes will be burned, along with coal, to generate electricity at both power plants, and the non-combustible materials will be sold for recycling.

The system is designed to encompass the City of St. Louis and six adjacent counties in Missouri and Illinois.

Dougherty said the economic justification for the estimated $70 million in capital costs and $11 million in annual operating costs will come from the heating value of the burnable material, dumping fees, and sale of non-burnable recyclable materials.

He cautioned that a commitment of this magnitude necessarily is contingent on (1) establishment of realistic environmental regulations for refuse-burning boilers, and (2) assurance of a supply of solid waste from public and private collectors for a duration that will justify the required capital investment.

He said experience with the prototype and the company's technical and economic studies are the basis for the decision.

While the heat value of the solid wastes is a plus for us, we believe the solution this offers to municipal waste disposal problems is even more important."

The utility president said he found the decision "exciting." "The potential is tremendous."

Obviously, recycling and reusing waste materials makes sense environmentally. When that can be achieved economically, it is a significant and positive achievement.

"This system will conserve natural resources and will all but eliminate the need to use land for waste disposal," he said.

Points cited included:

1. The prototype has demonstrated technical and economic feasibility.

2. Since initial operation of the prototype, St. Louis processed 28,000 tons of solid waste and Union Electric burned 21,000 tons to generate 20,000,000 KWHRs of electricity, thereby conserving 9,000 tons of coal.

3. Two to 2½ tons of processed solid waste have the same heat content as one ton of coal.

4. The prototype recovers steel which is now being used by Granite City Steel to replace iron ore in its blast furnaces.

There are 150 pounds of recoverable steel in every ton of solid waste.

5. Reynolds Metals has been experimenting with recovering aluminum, copper, brass and other non-magnetic metals from the solid waste.

There are 10 to 20 pounds of recoverable aluminum, copper, brass, etc., in a ton of solid waste.

6. A practical and economic system has been developed to transport thousands of tons of solid waste each day from centrally located solid waste collection truck receiving stations (transfer stations) by rail to power plants for processing.

The system would use closed containers carried on conventional railroad flat cars.

7. Power plants have capability of handling all residential, industrial and commercial solid wastes from the metropolitan St. Louis area comprising 4,500 square miles and 2.5 million people, generating 9,000 to 9,000 tons of solid waste each day.

8. Sulfur content of the burnable solid waste is about 0.1 per cent, which is equivalent to low-sulphur fuel oil.

STEEL RECYCLING. Since last November, processed ferrous wastes have been trucked from St. Louis nine miles to Granite City Steel, to be remelted at the blast furnaces (in background) in place of an equal amount of iron ore. Although scrap steel has been recycled for years at the Granite City Steel basic oxygen furnace, the new prototype project marks the first time such wastes ever have been remelted routinely in steel mill blast furnaces. Molten pig iron produced at the blast furnaces is later refined with more scrap to produce steel by the basic oxygen process. It was announced this month that GC Steel will play a major role in the Union Electric Company's region wide solid waste utilization system.

Soil tests for pasture recommended

By JAMES R. SHEARL
University of Illinois
Agricultural Adviser

Your pasture ground may need a soil test now. In previous years farmers have gauged the fertility needs of their pasture by an estimate of its growing performance. From that estimate they have decided how much fertilizer to apply. However, with shortages and increased costs of fertilizer, a soil test may be a necessary pasture management tool.

The value of good pasture can be measured in a number of ways. Good pastures are economical feed sources for livestock. Dense lush pastures provide exercise room for animals normally in confinement lots.

A shot-gun approach for early spring pasture fertility calls for: 100 pounds of triple super phosphate and 500 pounds of muriate of potash per acre and either 60 to 70 pounds of actual nitrogen for bluegrass or 75 to 125 pounds of nitrogen for bromegrass, tall fescue and timothy stands. However, with an actual fertilizer test you may be able to get by this year much less.

Here are some more ideas concerning pasture management that will increase the efficiency of your pasture. Move salt stations to different locations in the pasture every two or three weeks. The same idea holds true for supplemental feed bunks, oilers, and water supplies. Cattle walk the same "cow path" to sources of mineral feed and water. As a result, grazing patterns also tend to concentrate near these areas. Short sections of fence can be strung to force cattle away from their normal path to water and into normally light grazed areas.

Over-grazing, especially during late summer, is very detrimental to pasture stands. If you graze year around, allow 3 to 5 acres of pasture per cow and calf. If pastures are grazed only during spring and summer months, a cow and calf per acre is a safe rule of thumb. It is always tempting to put cattle on pasture as soon as things begin to green-up. However, if you will wait until a six inch stand has grown, you will run less danger of bloat and both legumes and grasses will be thrifter the entire season.

Weed control is essential. Identify the weeds that menace your pasture so that an effective weed control program can be implemented. Weed kill will be most effective if done early in the growing season when weeds are young and tender.

Spring seeding date for hay and pasture species is late March or early April. Hay and pasture crops may be seeded with or without a companion crop.

Spring oats is the most widely used companion crop with spring seeded alfalfa. Oats are a cool weather crop. Early planting is very important for yields. Oats should be planted as soon as the ground can be worked. April 15 would be considered a late planting date.

Oats respond to fertilizer about the same as wheat. Use recent field fertility history or a soil test as a guide to fertility needs. Usual nitrogen rates are 40 to 60 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre.

With good management and weather, alfalfa seeded without a companion crop can produce about three tons of high-quality hay per acre during the first year. This would save the planter expense of oat seed and fertilizer plus the fuel consumed in planting and harvesting the oat crop.

KEYS TAKEN FROM HOME
Mrs. Reva Turner, 2652 Center St., reported this week that she returned home and found a kitchen light on which had been off when she left. She went to a neighbor's house and called police. Officers found the glass in the rear door had been broken to gain entry. Four safe deposit keys were stolen.

Coal and highways in news

Development news in Madison, St. Clair and Monroe Counties:
Coal, one of this area's most abundant natural resources, continues to make news as a number of firms announce preliminary plans for coal liquefaction and gasification plants.

Construction is expected to begin next fall on a $19 million test facility at Pekin which will convert coal to a low-BTU gas.

Gov. Dan Walker has announced that the state will join with Northern Illinois Gas Co. in seeking approval and funding for a gasification plant to be built in Southern or Central Illinois.

Completion of the Illinois Highway 203 improvement project from Granite City to Interstate 270 is expected by year-end. The improvement will create a new four-lane access.

In Collinsville, state transportation officials announced plans to re-route Illinois Highway 187 west of the city. The new route will join the proposed 1-235 between the Penn Center tracks and I-55-70.

Alton Box Board Co. has authorized sale of 300,000 shares of common stock to The Williams Companies. Negotiations toward merger of the two firms have terminated.

A St. Louis garment manufacturer, Bridal Originals, said it has made an offer to lease Princess Peggy's Belleville plant. In January, Peoria-based Princess Peggy filed a bankruptcy petition in federal court. The Belleville operation was closed last week.

New three-year labor agreements have been successfully negotiated at the Owens-Illinois plant in Alton and at the A. O. Smith Corp. auto frame plant in Granite City. The new agreements cover over 3,300 employees.

State Community College of East St. Louis may be moved to the site of St. Teresa Academy. Academy property is available due to a consolidation of two parochial high schools. College officials indicate that the property will be leased on a temporary basis but have also suggested that the site is being considered as a permanent location.

U. S. Transportation Secretary Claude Brinegar has issued a policy statement indicating that there will be few, if any, new airports built in the U. S. over the next ten years.

Opponents of development of a new regional airport at Columbia-Waterloo are hailing the statement as an indication that DOT officials are favoring expansion of Lambert Field in Missouri instead. Proponents caution that the statement is a reflection of national needs and does not necessarily indicate a shift against the proposed new Illinois airport.

Monroe County commissioners have given first reading to a new planned unit development ordinance which establishes ground rules for development of the new city of Chapel Spring. Developers of the proposed community of 15,000 expect to present their master plan for development to the commissioners in April.

Woman on GOP ballot for county treasurer

Unopposed in the March 19 Republican primary, Mrs. Carol McDevore Frederick, 33, East Alton, is seeking election as treasurer of Madison County.

An eighth grade language arts teacher at Lewis and Clark Junior High School, Wood River, from 1969 until January 1974, she has eight years of teaching experience, including positions at Eldorado and Dolton. She was born in Harrisburg, Ill.

Her husband, Richard M. Frederick, is to receive the degree of doctor of dental surgery in May from the Washington University School of Dentistry. They have two daughters, Melanie, 11, and Michelle, eight.

She holds a bachelor degree, having attended SIUC and David Lipscomb College, and is a candidate for a master degree in counseling this summer at SIUC.

She is serving as contractual election coordinator for the Illinois Education Association.

Mrs. Frederick has held offices in the American Association of University Women, Republican League of Women, Rosewood School PTA and Rosewood Heights Heart Fund.

A member of the Citizens' Advisory Committee of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, she has served as chairman of Concerned Taxpayers of Madison County.

She was election coordinator in Madison County in 1972 for U. S. Senator Charles H. Percy and was selected as legislative intern and administrative aide to State Senator Jack Schaffer in 1973.

A candidate for Wood River Township clerk in 1972, she was the first woman lecturer at the Forum on Women in the Church sponsored by area Churches of Christ in 1973.

Organizer of the Alwood Manor Home Owners' Association, she is a panel member on "Women in Politics, 1974" at the Illinois Women's Political Caucus.

Mrs. Frederick commented to the Press-Record, "My candidacy offers responsible and dedicated count in the county treasurer's office. Now, more than ever, voters are demanding accountability at all levels of government."

"The administration of this county office, if I am elected, will be conducted as a service for the citizens, and not as a political plum that promotes the interest of a few."

"The official now in office has demonstrated indifference and even contempt for the taxpayers he was elected to serve. The maladministration during his tenure in office is truly remarkable."

"If elected, measures will be taken to correct the unfair investment policies that have robbed the citizens of Madison County of thousands upon thousands of dollars."

"The data processing system, which was installed at a great deal of expense, will be utilized so that taxing bodies, such as schools, will receive tax monies due them on time as required by law.

"The present administration regularly violates this statute, forcing these bodies to issue anticipation warrants, again at a cost to the taxpayers."

"My candidacy is based on the hope that people will see their responsibility to the government under which they live and will act in a positive way to ensure responsible conduct in the county treasurer's office by supporting me."

"When our American society decides it wants political leadership with integrity, dignity and responsibility, then it will extol those who hold those virtuous traits and elect them to office."

HOME BURGLARIZED
The home of Shirley Rigby, 2418 E. 25th St., was entered during the weekend, police were notified. It was not known what was taken.

LOSING HAIR

Frank Moran... Shows He ReGrew Hair. He Did Not Have Male Pattern Baldness.

EBB'S HAIR CONSULTANT WILL EXPLAIN HAIR PROBLEMS FREE AT THE HOLIDAY INN
I-270 & Ill. 157, EDWARDSVILLE, ILL.
SUNDAY, MARCH 17
HOURS 1 P.M. to 8:30 P.M.

Louisville, Ky., March 14. Now the time to act on this great opportunity. Every hair-worried person (man or woman) should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION. Many users have reported not only stopping their hair from thinning... but are really growing more hair.
GUARANTEED
You will be given a written guarantee on a pro-rated basis from the beginning to the end.
Naturally we could not give you such a guarantee if it didn't work.
CAN'T HELP
Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of hair loss and excessive hair loss, for which no method is effective. EBB's Hair Consultants cannot help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss. But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even a hairdresser seems to "run in use" this is certainly no proof of the cause of your hair loss.
Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead you are beyond help. So, if you still have hair on top of your head, don't wait like to stop hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.
FREE CONSULTATION
Just take a few minutes of your time on Sunday, March 17 and find out the Holiday Inn in Edwardsville, Ill. between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. ask the EBB's Hair Consultant for a free consultation.
There is no charge or obligation... all consultations are private, you will not be embarrassed in any way.

Gardenaires aid Brazilian students

The Gardenaires Garden Club has participated in a World Gardening Program for the last two years by sending packets of seeds to school children in the city of Belem, Para, Brazil, and has had just received successful reports of the venture from Senora Seylla Pecury, a member of the Garden Club of Para: Missouri in Belem.

The Belem program initially was started to increase the nutritive value of the school lunches by having elementary students plant their own vegetable gardens on school property.

Each year, trophies and medals are given to those youngsters who distinguish themselves in gardening. Private gardens also are included in the competition.

The World Gardening Program, a nationwide objective of The National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., is concerned with the exchange of friendships, horticultural knowledge, rural youth club projects, irrigation reforestation, family gardens, nutrition gardens, crop rotation and school kitchen gardens.

In conjunction with the project, the local Gardenaires sent to Belem a total of 307 seed packets the first year, including 233 vegetable, 19 herb and 55 flower seed packages during August 1972.

In July 1973, just in time for the approaching planting season in Belem, the local club mailed 402 packets with 200 vegetable, 38 herb and 161 flower packages of seeds.

All the seeds sent to Brazil were donated to the Gardenaires by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hensen, 2345 O'Hare Ave. Mrs. Mary Tarpoiff serves as club project chairman.

YOUTHFUL BRAZILIAN gardeners receive special awards for their interest and efforts in planting gardens in school yards. The three students at left are members of the Artur Porto student group, winners of the top award. D. Seylla Pecury, right, is president of the Para-Missouri Garden club in Belem, Para, Brazil. The Gardenaires of Granite City contributed seeds to the school project.

The goal of the program is to help adults and young people in developing areas to learn to produce sufficient food for themselves, their communities and their nation. Mrs. Tarpoiff explained.

Navy Mothers donate funds

Quadrant City Navy Mothers Unit 850 authorized $25 donations to four different charitable endeavors at a meeting held in the VFW Post 1300 Hall. Mrs. Mary Lee Busler, commander, was in charge.

Donations were made to a Vietnamese orphanage, Great Lakes Naval Hospital, Danville Naval Hospital and Camp Lejeune Hospital.

During the meeting a nominating committee was named. Appointed were Mesdames Margaret Minze, Della Robb, Jean Teller, Verna Spurrier and Stella Miller, who were asked to prepare a slate of officers by the May 4th election date.

Hostesses Mrs. Stella Miller and Elizabeth Ramsey directed the games and presented prizes to Mrs. Spurrier, Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. Teller. Refreshments were served to 17 members.

Garden Study Club installs

Mrs. John Sigite presented a program, entitled "Legends of the Language of Flowers," taken from the "Instantized" yearbook plan of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., at the installation meeting of the Garden Study Club.

Members met in the home of Mrs. Bernadine Cooley, 2715 Center St., for a dessert luncheon followed by the business session. Mrs. Bonard Maples led the group in the club collect and roll call was answered by naming a spring bloom.

At the district's annual meeting March 28 at the Presbyterian Church in Collinsville, officers will be installed and awards presented to local clubs, it was announced. Mrs. G. W. Stearns, the retiring president, gave her annual report, followed by reports of committee chairmen. Mrs. Stearns then pinned corsages of appropriate color on each new officer. Mrs. Marge O'Neil of Cloverview Garden Club, the installing officer, gave the charge of office.

The outgoing president also presented mementoes to the chairmen of the Junior Garden Club, Mrs. Lida Theis and Mrs. Pat Blankenship, and presented the club pin and gavel to the new president, Mrs. Clara Winter. Mrs. C. E. Eads of the Gardenaires, Mrs. William Bradley and Mrs. O'Neil of Cloverview Club, together with Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Winter, attended the 35th anniversary tea of the Edwardsville Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Matilda Hanser, 620 N. Buchanan St., it was reported.

Others at the meeting were Mesdames Robert Briggs, Rolla Grewell, J. O. Lehman, Charles Lexow, August Theis and Arthur Roman. Mrs. E. H. Theis will entertain the club in April at her home, 2200 Bern Ave.

Minerva Woman's Club projects

The Minerva Woman's Club arranged to send donations and to purchase needed items for two projects during a meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Solberg, 3264 Westchester Drive.

A gift of undergarments for members of a local family was authorized and a $100 donation was sent to the Boy Scouts. Club members also purchased coats, valued at more than $80, for the Regional Special Education class, which meets in Madison and includes students from the Quad-City area.

Mrs. Helen Peterson presided at the meeting and discussed the groups annual mother and daughter dinner, tentatively set for May.

Members agreed to write in support of a telephone-teletype system for the deaf and to encourage television stations to provide better storm warning announcements for deaf persons through the teletype program.

Mrs. Peterson announced a March 21 dinner is planned at a St. Louis restaurant and she also reviewed an annual party hosted last month for members and their husbands by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tarpoiff, 1609 Clark Ave. Forty-eight attended the event and spent the evening viewing "old-time" movies.

Parade of Flags planning to start

Preparations for the annual Parade of Flags, an event held each Memorial Day in Granite City, will be initiated at 8 p.m. Monday, March 25, at a special meeting at the Disabled American Veterans Hall on 18th Street.

Representatives from all area veterans' groups are being invited to attend the planning session, according to Mrs. Lena Kalips, DAV Auxiliary commander.

Plans for the traditional parade, sponsored by DAV Chapter 33, were reviewed at an auxiliary business session last week. Mrs. Kalips presided and Mrs. Bert Kiehler, chaplain, offered prayer.

Also reviewed were details of a "ping pong ball" project at Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, co-sponsored by the local auxiliary and the Missing-In-Action committee at Scott. The group also completed plans to entertain veterans at the Jefferson Barracks Hospital on Friday, March 29.

Mrs. Mary Lee Busler, senior vice-commander and Mrs. Pat Mache, junior vice commander, read the chapter's bylaws preceding a social hour.

Others attending were Mesdames Winnie Kelly, Lillian Heffery, Irene Hoeller, Louise Schleff, Harriet Jones, Pat Tapp and Thelmaillard.

North High parents plan 'Band Fun Day'

Preparations for "Band Fun Day," scheduled in May, occupied members of Granite City High School North Band Parents Association at their March business meeting. Details for the project will be completed prior to the next session, it was reported.

In other business, a nominating committee was selected to prepare a slate of officers for the annual meeting in June.

Robert D. Todoroff, and director, discussed various supplies and equipment still being delivered to the school and reviewed programs in which the band will be involved during the next few months.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Constance Haupt and Mrs. Lorraine Elmore.

Quad-City couples observe anniversaries

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Page 42 Thurs., Mar. 14, 1974

MR. AND MRS. EMILE DAMOTTE, 2301 Missouri Ave., who will mark their golden anniversary Saturday at a family dinner party in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Loftus, 26 Bermuda Lane.

Golden anniversary of Mr., Mrs. Emile DaMotte

Mr. and Mrs. Emile DaMotte, 2301 Missouri Ave., will be guests of honor at a 50th wedding anniversary dinner party on Saturday evening given by their children.

The family party will be held in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey (Sharon) Loftus, 26 Bermuda Lane.

Co-hosting the event will be the couple's sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy (Donna) Hartwick and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph (Myrna) Geisler, all of Granite City, and a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emile "Skip" (Betty) DaMotte, of Pekin, Ill.

Mr. DaMotte and his wife, the former Maudie Evelyn Cotter, were married on March 19, 1924, in the Dewey Avenue Methodist Church pastored by the Rev. James Jackson.

Both are lifelong residents of Granite City and longtime members of Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church.

Mr. DaMotte was employed as a wood patternmaker at General Steel Industries and American Steel Foundries for several years. He also worked at the East Side Pattern and Model Works in East St. Louis for 22 years prior to retiring in 1968. He belongs to Masonic Triple Lodge 835.

Mrs. DaMotte is a charter member of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, and a past matron of Granite Chapter 650, Order of Eastern Star. She also is a former member of Job's Daughters Mother Club of Bethel 43.

The honorees have 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. All will attend the celebration.

Due to the recent illness of Mrs. DaMotte a reception for friends and relatives was cancelled and the informal observance has been arranged, a family spokesman advised.

Harlan Hogues mark 22nd anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan (Alberta) Hogue, 2129 Ohio Ave., were guests of honor at a dinner party in observance of their 22nd wedding anniversary given during the weekend by their children at the Hogue home.

Hosting the affair were Harlan Hogue Jr., William C. Hogue, Brian, Paul, John, Betty, Joyce and Kathy Hogue and Mrs. Elaine Kimbro and their families.

MR. AND MRS. GRADY DODD, 2033 Illinois Ave., who will observe their golden wedding anniversary at a reception Sunday at the Second Baptist Church.

Mr., Mrs. Grady Dodd to mark 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Dodd, 2033 Illinois Ave., will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at a reception from 2 to 4 p.m., Sunday at the Second Baptist Church, 2100 Illinois Ave.

They were married in Dover, Tenn., on March 12, 1924, and have owned and operated Dodd's Cleaners on Illinois avenue for 28 years.

Mr. Dodd also was a school crossing guard at 25th Street and Missouri Avenue for eight years. He retired in November 1972.

All friends and relatives are being invited to attend the afternoon reception hosted by the couple's children, Mrs. Howard (Jean) Stoppotte, Mrs. Fred (Payo) Mercer and Edward Dodd. All are Granite City residents.

50th wedding event to fete John Richardsons

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Richardson will celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage at a golden wedding reception from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the Church of Christ, 26th Street and Washington Avenue.

The couple was married in Erin, Tenn., on March 12, 1924. They lived in Granite City most of their married life, moving back to Erin about eight years ago.

Mr. Richardson was employed 22 years in the maintenance division at the Granite City Army Installation prior to retiring in 1965. He worked many years at the former "coke plant" here and previously was a coal miner in the Millstadt area.

The Richardsons have three sons residing in Granite City and at present are the house guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richardson, 5212 Maryville Road.

Their other children are Howard and Marlin Richardson, both of Granite City, John Richardson of Nashville, Tenn., Mike Richardson at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Donald (Sarah) Wyman of North Berwick, Me., formerly of Granite City.

They also have 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

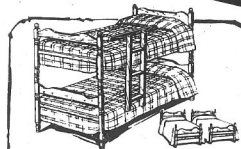

All friends and relatives of the Richardsons are being invited to attend Sunday's celebration at the Church of Christ Hall, a family spokesman said.

Mestel-Mathis engagement

Plans for a summer wedding were disclosed with announcement of the engagement of Miss Brenda Mathis and Kevin Mestel by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mathis, 2568 Boyle Ave.

The prospective groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mestel, 706 Dooner Drive, Collinsville. A 1973 graduate of Collinsville High School, he is now employed at Granite City Steel Co.

Miss Mathis was graduated in 1973 from Granite City High School. She now works at Ford Hotel Supply in St. Louis.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED E. SCHLOTMANN. They were married in an early evening ceremony at St. John Catholic Church in Red Bud, Ill. The bride is the former Miss Brenda Sue Wilder, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilder of Toledo, Ill., formerly of Granite City.

Brenda Wilder becomes Mrs. Alfred Schlotmann

Miss Brenda Sue Wilder and Alfred E. Schlotmann exchanged wedding vows on March 2 at St. John Catholic Church in Red Bud, Ill.

Officiating at the 4 o'clock afternoon ceremony was the Rev. Bungay and the Rev. Barger. Sister Mary Jane presided at the organ and accompanied Miss Shannon White, who sang "Love Story," "More" and "For All We Know."

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilder, Rural Route One, Toledo, Ill., formerly of Granite City. The groom is a son of Mrs. Helen Schlotmann of Red Bud, and the late Clemens Schlotmann.

For her wedding, the former Miss Wilder chose an A-line gown of chiffon over satin designed with a sheer yoke and high stand up collar of lace etched with sequins and pearls.

The long full sleeves were gathered at the wrists into tightly fitted cuffs. Bejeweled lace formed the hemline of the slightly full skirt. She wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion secured to a halo headpiece and she held a bouquet of yellow mums and white snowflake flowers.

Miss Becky Wilder, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Helen Marie Heusohn, a sister of the groom and Mrs.

Wilma Kern, the groom's cousin, were bridesmaids. Kim Schlotmann, a niece of the groom, served as flower girl. Each of the attendants wore a frock of yellow chiffon over taffeta accented with lace and carried a single yellow rose.

The groom chose his brother, Robert Wilder, as best man. Henry Schlotmann, another brother and Jerry Heusohn, a brother-in-law of the groom, were groomsmen. David Alumbaugh was the ringbearer.

Mrs. Wilder, mother of the bride, selected a mint green gown and the groom's mother, Mrs. Schlotmann, was attired in a navy blue and white frock.

The newly married couple received guests at a reception given at the St. John Social Center in Red Bud. The bride is a graduate of Cumberland High School in Toledo. Mr. Schlotmann was graduated from Red Bud High School and is employed at Midwest Rubber Reclaiming Co., East St. Louis. They will reside at 524 E. South Second St., Red Bud.

Deany Council event reviewed

Mrs. Alda Yurko, president of St. Ann's Altar Society of St. Mary Catholic Church, Madison, reviewed the March meeting of the Alton Deany Council of Catholic Women held at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Granite City, at a business meeting last week.

The opening prayer was offered by the chaplain, Mrs. Mary Krajnovich. A new church ritual to be practiced in the St. Mary's parish, involving persons 65 years or older, was discussed by the Rev. Sylvester Micek. Mrs. Yurko welcomed a new member, Josephine Borian.

Refreshments were served by Ann Loftus, Elsie Kneitz, Mary Melchic and Ann Kwiatkowski to the above named and to Vada Krajnovich, Lee Krpan, Helen Romanic, Verónica Kula, Cecilia Spinks, Mary Pogorelec, Barbara Planitz, Ann Bialeczak, Julia Gocian and Frances Trots. Mrs. Helen Harshany won the white elephant gift.

The April hostesses will be Mary Sheehy, Ann Modrusic, Dell Miller and Ann Muskonis.

Eta Chapter to host luncheon

Mrs. Jo Ervay, 3700 Johnson Road, was hostess to Eta Chapter of Phi Tau Omega Sorority when members discussed plans for a spring luncheon to be held April 20 at the Bel-Air East in St. Louis.

Mrs. Georgiana Van Buskirk, president, announced Eta Chapter will be host at the luncheon meeting for the national council and sorority chapters in the bi-state St. Louis area. Theme for the all-day affair will focus on an Hawaiian motif.

Miss Mary Hassler read changes in chapter bylaws, which were approved, and tentative plans were made for a spring rummage sale project. The president named Mrs. Evelyn Allen, Mrs. Lois Hedge, Mrs. Millie Greathouse and Miss Hassler to serve on the social committee.

Prizes for the evening were won by Miss Hassler and the hostess. A business meeting will be held April 3.

Nameeki races highlight committeemen elections

Democratic precinct committeemen races in Nameeki Township will highlight committeemen balloting throughout the 61 voting precincts of the Quad-Cities area in Tuesday's primary election.

Precinct committeemen are elected, rather than nominated, in the primary election. Democratic and Republican committeemen will be elected in 32 Granite City precincts, 11

Venice Township precincts, 11 in Nameeki Township and seven in Chouteau Township.

Opposition for the Democratic committeemen posts will highlight balloting in nine of the 11 Nameeki precincts, with the incumbent in each of those precincts seeking re-election.

Incumbent Democratic committeemen in four of Granite City's 32 precincts have opposition—precincts 10, 19, 20 and 23—but there is no opposition in any of the remaining 28 precincts.

Chouteau has opposition for only two of its seven committeemen posts, while Venice is without a single contest and lacks a Democratic candidate in precinct 10. Venice has 11 precincts.

The Republican party lacks candidates in most of the precincts throughout the area. In Nameeki Township there is one candidate each for committee posts in precincts 3, 6 and 9. There are no candidates for the other eight posts in that township.

There are Republican candidates, without opposition, for seven of Granite City's 32 committee posts, and no filing in the other 25. Only one candidate filed in Venice Township for one of the 11 posts there, and only two candidates are seeking election in two of the seven precincts of Chouteau Township.

Nameeki Township candidates without opposition are Joseph Garcia, precinct 3, and Homer Boothman of precinct 4. Both are incumbents.

Incumbent committeemen are opposed in seven of the other nine Nameeki precincts: precincts 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. In precincts 10 and 11 the opposition is between two candidates in precinct 10 and three candidates in precinct 11, where the incumbents are not seeking re-election.

Floyd Davis Moss, mayor of Pontoon Beach and incumbent Democratic committeeman of Precinct 1, is seeking re-election, opposed by Lillian L. Singer, while in precinct 2, incumbent Thomas G. Hill is opposed by Richard L. Peck. Helen Hawkins, leader of a group of residents of the Dobrey Slough area in their fight for drainage improvements, has filed as a committeeman candidate in Nameeki precinct 5 to oppose the incumbent, Ira Dean Harrell.

Incumbent Committeeman William Thomas in precinct 6 is opposed by Lloyd Miller Jr., while Frank Mehelic, incumbent in precinct 7, is opposed by Eugene Gargac, a member of the Nameeki town board.

Harry A. Briggs, incumbent committeeman of precinct 8 and a former township supervisor, is opposed by Joseph W. Bolt, Incumbent Raymond L. Gaudette Jr. is opposed by David L. Johnson in precinct 9.

Candidates in precinct 10 are David Huckla, former assistant township supervisor, and Charles "Buzz" Koller. Leo P. Fortell, incumbent, did not file for re-election.

In precinct 11, three candidates are seeking the Democratic posts—Kelly A. Grimm, Joseph A. Papa and Pete Novachek Jr. Incumbent Elmer R. Sullivan is not seeking re-election.

Opposition in four Granite City precincts includes that in which Sam Wolf, incumbent committeeman of precinct 23, is opposed by Ralph L. Elliott. Wolf is secretary of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee and Elliott is a former chairman of the Granite City Board of Fire and Police Commissioners.

Incumbent committeeman Steve Ortiz of precinct 10 is opposed by Stephen C. Sallich. Varadani, while in precinct 19, Dorothy M. Vaughn, incumbent, is opposed by Stephen C. Sallich.

James P. Worthen, incumbent of precinct 20, is opposed by Glen E. Sprankle. Other Granite City filings are:

Pet. 1, Frank J. Fuzessery, inc.; Pet. 2, Frank Fritz Barunica, inc.; Pet. 3, Virginia O'Beir, inc.; Pet. 4, Herbert E. Milton Jr., inc.; Pet. 5, Andrew Timko, inc.; Pet. 6, Rufus S. LeMaster, inc.; Pet. 7, Walter C. Whitaker, inc.; Pet. 8, Gary L. Miller.
